WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

SHORT-TERM TRAININGS

The Workforce Development Division (WFD) at New Mexico Junior College offers fast, flexible, non-credit training programs designed to help you gain in-demand skills and explore new career paths.

Whether you're looking to upskill, reskill, or start fresh in a new field, WFD is here to support your journey every step of the way.

We partner with regional employers to ensure our programs align with real industry needs—so you're not just learning, you're preparing for success.

Get trained. Get hired. Get ahead.
