Albuquerque Public Schools continues to improve our efforts to count every possible student on our impact aid application. Starting in the 2018-2019 school year, our district received permission to collect membership application information from students via our online registration system.

In our current FY19 application, we identified 223 students residing on federal lands and confirmed membership for 60 students. In addition to collecting membership applications via the online registration system, APS will send staff out to collect in person applications for the FY20 application to be finalized in January 2020. During these visits, we explain the importance of response to this information for funding and programs for students in our state.

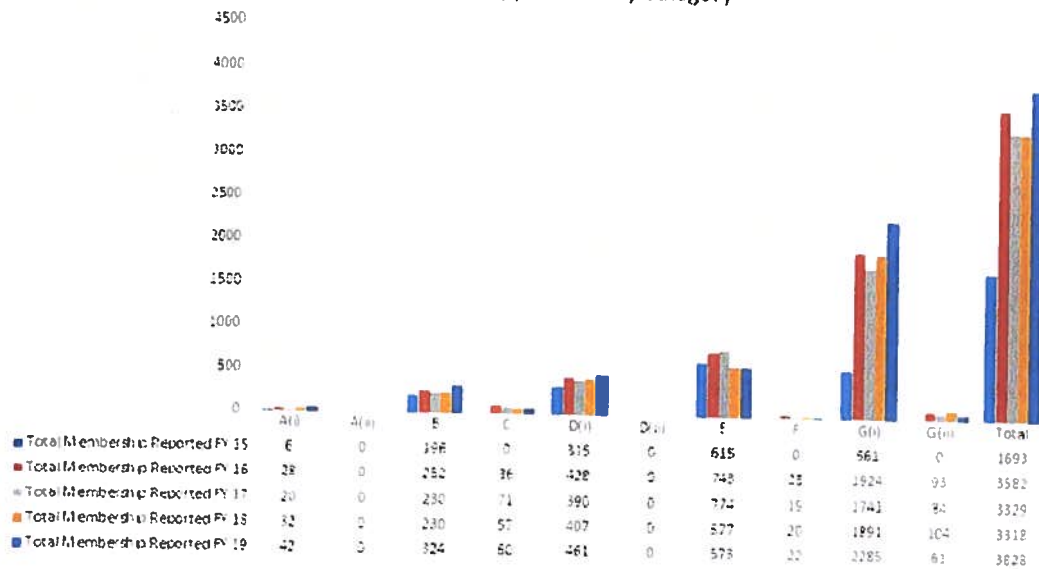

Albuquerque Public Schools serves 4,833 students identified as Native American with 223 of those students identified as living on native land, based on their zip code. Of the 223 students we identified who live on tribal lands, here is our current status of identification for the impact aid application:

Reservation Name	# students reside	# applied for impact aid
Not living on reservation	4,610	NOT ELIGIBLE FOR IMPACT AID

Total	4833 (223 on reservation land)	60

By working with our online application process, we continue to steadily increase the response rate from families for the impact aid application
