WHO IS INVOLVED IN TRAFFICKING?

- The recruiter gains the victims trust and then sells them for labor or to a pimp. Sometimes this is a boyfriend, a neighbor, or even a family member.
- The trafficker is the one who controls the victims. Making the victim fearful through abuse, threats, and lies the trafficker gains power over his/her victim.
- The victim could be anyone.
- The consumer funds the human trafficking industry by purchasing goods and services. Often s/he is unaware that someone is suffering.

Human trafficking is the third largest international crime industry (behind illegal drugs and arms trafficking). It reportedly generates a profit of $32 billion every year. Of that number, $15.5 billion is made in industrialized countries.

- Can be a boyfriend, father, mother, brother, uncle, doctor, clergy, a coach, a teacher or anyone exerting control over a minor, even a peer.
- Not always organized criminals.
- Both men and women of varying ages.
- Any ethnicity or race.
- Anyone who benefits from the commercial sexual exploitation of a minor or facilitates the commercial sexual exploitation of a minor.

THE TRAFFICKED PERSON

Human Trafficking reaches every culture and demographics. Regardless of their demographics, victims are vulnerable in some way, and the traffickers will use their particular vulnerability to exploit the victim.

Some risk factors include:

- Youth
- Poverty
- Unemployment
- Desperation
- Family backgrounds strife with violence, abuse, conflict
- Homelessness
- A need to be loved
- Immigration Status

THE TRAFFICKED PERSON

- Likely has been lied to about the work they will be doing in the U.S.
- Was economically motivated to come the United States or to seek a new job.
- Believes they have a real debt to pay and takes this very seriously.
- Has been lied to about their rights in this country and what will happen to them if they seek help.
- Does not have any meaningful social network.
- Is extremely embarrassed about what is happening to him/her.
- May not see themselves as a victim – they may feel blame for their situation.
- May be holding out hope that if he or she proves their worth, things will get better

COMMERCIAL SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN AND DOMESTIC MINOR SEX TRAFFICKING

- Internet Based Prostitution
- Street Prostitution (increasingly less common)
- Strip club
- Pornography
- Escort Services
- Casinos/Clubs
- Private Parties
- Interfamilial Pimping
- Survival Sex
- Sex for Drugs
- Gang Based Prostitution

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND TECHNOLOGY

SOCIAL MEDIA PLATFORMS

Traffickers hit social networks to recruit underage girls to engage in commercial sex

- The trafficker have searched Facebook for attractive young girls, and sent them messages telling them that they were pretty and asking if they would like to make some money.

Three Red Flags

1. The working age
2. No additional information on location
3. The point of contact is a women's name because we tend to trust women more.
