

National History Day in New Mexico. More than just a contest...

...it is a year-long academic program focused on historical research, interpretation and creative expression for 6th - 12th grade students.

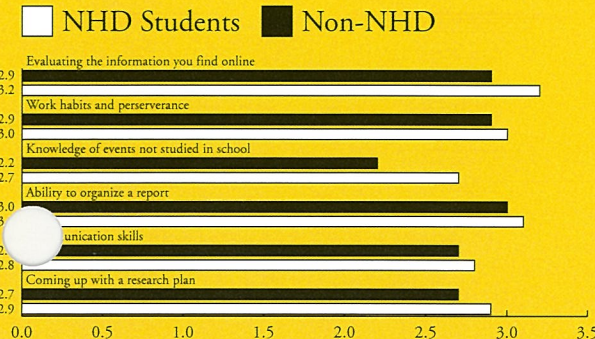

Writing Scores ~ overall, NHD students outscored comparison-group students on both pre- and post-writing assessments.

participating in NHD, students become writers, filmmakers, web designers, playwrights and artists as they create unique, contemporary expressions of history.

TAKS Test, Texas ~ nearly two thirds of NHD students met the minimum, had commended performance or passed the first time.

The experience culminates in a series of contests at the regional and state level and a national competition in Washington, DC.

Confidence Ratings on College- and Career-Ready Skills ~ NHD students consistently express more confidence in their skills than non-NHD students.
