Reopening Higher Education Institutions Reopening Plan Rubric

Critical Consideration	Criteria: Met, Not Met or N/A
	Limiting occupancy to a maximum of 25%, managing foot traffic
Strategy for limiting in-person staffing to essential in-	flow, ensuring social distancing of at least six feet, and required face
person functions	coverings
	Identified partnership with local, regional, or statewide medical
Strategy for rapid response testing	provider
	On-campus point of contact for New Mexico Department of Health
Strategy for contact tracing	contact tracers support
	Established protocols that consider regular temperature checks, questionnaires on symptoms and travel, and service by
Strategy for screening students, faculty and staff	appointment
Strategy for limiting campus visitors	Established protocols for managing indoor/outdoor traffic flow
	Established protocols that consider regular temperature checks,
	questionnaires on symptoms and travel, and service by
Strategy for screening campus visitors	appointment
	Established protocols for daily/regular cleaning of public and shared
Protocols for cleaning and disinfecting	spaces
	Managing occupancy and foot traffic flow, ensuring social distancing
Protocols for minimizing exposure in classrooms	of at least six feet, and required face coverings
	Managing occupancy and foot traffic flow, ensuring social distancing
Protocols for minimizing exposure in labs	of at least six feet, and required face coverings
	Managing occupancy and foot traffic flow, ensuring social distancing
Protocols for minimizing exposure in other campus facilities	of at least six feet, and required face coverings
	No double occupancy, cleaning protocols, identified isolation space, ensuring social distancing of at least six feet, and required face
Protocols for minimizing exposure in residence halls	coverings
Protocols for safely opening campus dining	No indoor dining and no self-service