

OFFICE OF THE STATE GAMING REPRESENTATIVE

PRESENTATION TO THE

LEGISLATIVE FINANCE COMMITTEE

OCTOBER 28, 2021

Tunté Vigil
State Gaming Representative
New Mexico Gaming Control Board

OVERVIEW

- The State Gaming Representative is the person designated by the Gaming Control Board pursuant to the Gaming Control Act, (60-2E-1 to 60-2E-60, NMSA 1978) who will be responsible for actions of the State set out in the Compact
- The State Gaming Representative serves a dual role; both as a liaison between the Tribes and the State, and as a regulator to monitor Tribal compliance of the Compact terms
- The Office of the State Gaming Representative employs two (2) full-time employees: Tribal Compliance Office and Tribal Auditor
- Any information, documents or communications provided to the State Gaming Representative, his agents or contractors, or to any other official, agency or entity of the State (all of which are collectively hereinafter referred to as “the State entities”) by the Tribe, the Tribal Gaming Agency or the Gaming Enterprise, or prepared from information obtained from the Tribe, the Tribal Gaming Agency or the Gaming Enterprise, or any information, documents or communications provided to the Tribe, the Tribal Gaming Agency, or the Gaming Enterprise by any State entity, or prepared from information obtained from any State entity, under the provisions of this Compact or under the provisions of any Predecessor Agreement, are confidential. (Section 4.E.4)
