FY21 Request - P534 Community Offender Management

- PPD opened the first state sponsored gender specific Transitional Living Center in NM, which incorporates the Results First premise of utilizing evidence based practices (EBP).
- PPD has adopted the approach of reviewing cost/benefit analysis to prioritize funding to programs that are most likely to produce positive results in all areas of behavioral health services to include inpatient and outpatient services.
- PPD has worked diligently to provide the tools for the population base and has also moved toward community supervision model. As part of this, PPD has implemented a new evidence based validated risk/needs assessment tool (COMPAS) and supervision plan to better meet the risk/needs of the offenders.
