Personal Care Services (PCS – formerly known as PCO, or Personal Care Option): Reimbursement Rates and Worker Pay in New Mexico Medicaid

|      | Medicaid reimbursement rate to agency                             | Required payto caregiver | New Mexicominimum wage |
|------|---|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1999 | $18/hr   | $9/hr                       | $4.25/hr                  |
| 2002 | $16  | $9                          | $4.25                     |
| 2003 | $15  | $8.50                       | $4.25                     |
| 2004 | $13.50(1 st 100 hours)$11.50(hours >100) | $8                          | $5.15                     |
| 2006 | $13.16   | *                            | $5.15                   |
| 2009 | $12.88   | *                            | $7.50                     |
| 2015 | $13.40   | *                            | $7.50                     |
| 2016 | $13.27   | *                            | $7.50                     |
| 2019 | $13.40(1% increase eff.1/1/2019to restore 2015 rates)    | *                            | $7.50                     |
|      | $13.90($0.50/hour increaseeff. 7/1/2019)                | *                            | $7.50                     |
| 2020 | $14.90($1/hour increaseEff. 1/1/2020)                   | *                            | $9.00                     |

* Beginning in 2006, HSD set no requirement for pay to individual workers.

<sup>**</sup> Some New Mexico localities have had higher minimum wages than the state minimum since the mid-2000s. Currently, those minimums are Albuquerque – $9.35, Bernalillo County (unincorporated areas) – $9.20, Las Cruces – $10.25, and Santa Fe (city and county) – $12.10.