Felon in Possession ("FIP") does not require use.

Under current law, if a convicted felon commits a new crime involving a gun, they are facing the following penalties:

11 years (HOE mandatory)	EITHER/OR	14 years (HOE mandatory)	And	18 years (HOE mandatory)	14 years (HOE mandatory)	20 years (HOE mandatory)	16 years (HOE mandatory)	22 years (HOE mandatory)
		FIP	new crime					total HOE with 3+
						total HOE with 3+		total HOE with 2
				total HOE with 3+		total HOE with 2	total HOE with 3+	HOE for 1 other prior total HOE* with 3+		total HOE with 3+		total HOE with 2	total HOE with 3+	HOE for 1 other prior	total HOE with 2	firearm enhancement
		total HOE with 2		HOE for 1 other prior		firearm enhancement
total HOE with 2		HOE for 1 other prior		firearm enhancement	total HOE with 2		HOE for 1 other prior
HOE for 1 other prior					HOE for 1 other prior		firearm enhancement
FIP	EITHER/OR	FIP	AND		firearm enhancement
basic sentence		basic sentence		new crime's basic sentence	new crime's basic sentence	new crime's basic sentence	new crime's basic sentence	new crime's basic sentence
Non-Violent Felon in Possession		Violent Felon in Possession		Firearm used during new drug transaction or aggravated burglary (2nd-deg felonies)	Firearm brandished in any new 3rd-degree felony	Firearm brandished in any new 2nd-degree felony	Firearm discharged in any new 3rd-degree felony	Firearm discharged in any new 2nd-degree felony

* HOE: habitual offender enhancement
 if trafficking is a second offense, the basic sentence is 18 years, not 9
 2nd and 3rd-degree felonies are the most common firearm crimes, but if the new crime is a 4th- or 1st-degree felony, the basic sentence would be 1.5 or 18 years, respectively