

CIVIL PENALTIES IN NEW MEXICO

| Act                                                 | Penalty for Violation                                                                    | Penalty for Noncompliance  | Limitation on Penalty                                                             |
|-----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Oil and Gas Act (2019)                              | $2,500 per day$10,000 per day if risk to health or environment                 | $10,000 per day           | $200,000 on administrative penaltiesNo limit for court-imposed penalties |
| Mining Act (1993)                                   | $10,000 per day                                                                         | $10,000 per day           | None                                                                              |
| Water Quality Act (1992)                            | $15,000 per day for permit violations$10,000 per day for non-permit violations | $25,000 per day           | None                                                                              |
| Air Quality Control Act (1991) (noncompliance 2006) | $15,000 per day                                                                         | $25,000 per day, by court | None                                                                              |
| Hazardous Waste Act                                 | $10,000 per day$10,000 per day for violation of corrective action order        | $25,000 per day           | None                                                                              |
| Solid Waste Act (1990)                              | $5,000 per day                                                                          | $10,000 per day           | None                                                                              |