

Overdose Death Prevention and Access to Naloxone

Presentation to the Legislative Health and Human Services Interim Committee

by Bernie Lieving, MSW

Overdose Prevention Education Coordinator

Behavioral Health Services Division-Office of Substance Abuse Prevention

&

Santa Fe Prevention Alliance

November 2, 2017

1. Brief History of Naloxone Distribution in New Mexico
2. CURES Act and Federal Funding from SAMHSA:
 - Prescription Drug/Opioid Overdose Grant (focus is on layperson distribution): $1 million a year for 5 years in Bernalillo, Dona Ana, Rio Arriba, and Santa Fe Counties
 - Opioid-State Targeted Response Grant (focus is on distributing to first responders): $4.8 million a year for 2 years for all 33 counties
3. General Funds: $500,000 for county jails and state prisons
4. Community Highlights:
 - County Jail Pilot Project
 - Santa Fe Fire Department Overdose Survivor Outreach
 - Reported Overdose Reversals
 - O-STR law enforcement trainings
 - PDO Highlights, including Probation and Parole