

why your child should attend

PRESCHOOL

Positively affects brain development

Promotes social/emotional development

- building trust
- positive behavior

Promotes language and cognitive skills

Boosts pre-math, reading, writing skills

Develops motor skills

- activities to build hand-eye coordination
- physical activities to foster growth

Prepares children for kindergarten

Resulting in better scores in achievement tests

starting school ready to learn

Grant County Community Early Care & Education: LINKS Partners

Preschool/Pre-K offered at:

- El Grito Head Start
- Guadalupe Montessori School
- WNMU Child Development Center
- Silver Schools Pre-K
- Cobre Schools Pre-K

Other partner programs available for young children:

- Cobre Foy Day Care (infant/toddler)
- Let the Children Come (school-age program)

For more information contact Community Partnership for Children
www.grantcountycpc.com
cpc.grantcounty.nm@gmail.com
(575) 590-2499

Educational Flyer funded by Freeport McMoRan
Community Investment Fund