Investment Performance Quarterly Report, Fourth Quarter, FY21

In FY21, soaring markets resulted in record gains for state investments. Driven by the largest recorded federal stimulus, vaccine distribution, and a reopening world, a resurgent economy buoyed asset values and confidence in the economic outlook. However, the state's investments performed worse than peer funds over the fiscal year as stability and risk-aversion continue to be sought by investment management.

Investment Performance Highlights

- For fiscal year 2021, the value of New Mexico's combined investment holdings for the pension and permanent funds grew by $11.7 billion, or 22.7 percent annually, to an ending balance of $63.5 billion. Over the last five years, the state's combined investment holdings grew $19 billion, or 42.7 percent.
- In a banner year of growth, one-year returns ranged from 22.4 percent (STPF) to 28.8 percent (ERB), and average investment returns over the last 10 years ranged from 7.6 percent (PERA) to 8.6 percent (ERB).
 - Public equites were very strong, driving growth across investments with returns between 35 and 65 percent for the one-year period.
- All funds outperformed their targets for every period, when annualized.¹
- Despite record annual growth in excess of 20 percent, when compared with peer funds greater than $1 billion on a net-of-fee basis, only ERB performed above the median for all periods, ranking near the top for the quarter. Similarly, PERA's private equity returns supported top quartile rankings for the quarter, though PERA's rankings for all other periods remain in the lowest quartile. The STPF performed near or in the lowest quartile for all periods, while the LGPF performed above the median in the quarter and ten-year periods and in the third quartile for all other periods.

THIS REPORT details the comparative investment performance of the three investment agencies: the Educational Retirement Board (ERB), the Public Employees Retirement Association (PERA), and the State Investment Council (SIC), which manages the land grant permanent fund (LGPF) and the severance tax permanent fund (STPF).

Agency performance and market environment information are derived from the investment performance reports submitted by PERA, ERB, and SIC.
