

SUSAN BITTER SMITH - EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

New Mexico Cable Television Industry Fact Sheet (2012-2013 data)

New Mexico Homes passed by cable access	751,701
New Mexico Cable subscribers	239,756
Plant miles.....	9,996
Plant miles undergrounded	4,792
Communities served	58

New Mexico's Cable companies have made services accessible, smartly. More than half of the cable infrastructure in the state has been undergrounded making it less susceptible to interruption.

New Mexico's Cable companies' information and entertainment services are competitive businesses. New Mexico Cable companies pay local fees and taxes and provide community access programming. Satellite competitors do not provide any of these benefits to New Mexico

New Mexico Cable companies provide quality, community and educational programming. Unlike competitors, New Mexico cable companies provide in kind support through free cable service to city buildings and schools.

New Mexico's Cable companies provide support to New Mexico's Public Safety officials. New Mexico Cable companies provide secure public safety channels and participate in the Emergency Alert System.