MEMORANDUM

TO: New Mexico Legislators

FR: Representative Rick Miera, Chair

FR: Senator Cynthia Nava, Vice Chair

RE: SUMMARY OF PUBLIC EDUCATION-RELATED LEGISLATION PASSED BY THE 50TH LEGISLATURE, 2ND SESSION, 2012

In statute, the Legislative Education Study Committee (LESC) is charged with conducting a continuing study of all education in New Mexico, the laws governing such education, and the policies and costs of the New Mexico educational system. At the end of each interim, based on policy and fiscal studies, the LESC develops recommendations for consideration of the full Legislature, including a public school support appropriation that addresses the state constitutional requirement to establish and maintain a uniform system of free public schools sufficient for the education of, and open to, all the children of school age in the state.

This memo and the attached materials, developed by the LESC staff, review the legislation from the 2012 regular 30-day session related to public schools, including public school support and other public education-related appropriations. The materials are organized as follows:

- Projected FY 13 State Revenues;
- Selected FY 13 General Fund Appropriations and Vetoed Language;
- FY 13 Public School Support and Related Appropriations;
- 2012-2013 Initial Program Unit Value;
- Public School Capital Outlay;
- Legislation Endorsed by the LESC;

- Legislative Memorials Directed to the LESC; and
- Other Public School-related Legislation.

Attachments include:

- Passed Public School-related Legislation, 50th Legislature, 2nd Session, 2012.

PROJECTED FY 13 STATE REVENUES

According to the consensus revenue estimate provided to the LESC during the committee's December 2011 interim meeting:

- "new money" in FY 13, which is defined as FY 13 projected revenue less FY 12 recurring appropriations, is approximately $254 million, or 4.7 percent over FY 12 appropriations; however,
- after setting aside approximately $50.0 million to reverse a 1.75 percent employee/employer retirement swap, the FY 13 "new money" is approximately $204 million.

SELECTED FY 13 GENERAL FUND APPROPRIATIONS AND VETOED LANGUAGE

In total, the General Appropriation Act of 2012, appropriated $5.65 billion from the General Fund, a 4.0 percent increase over the FY 12 budget, including:

- $757.8 million for higher education, an increase of $41.0 million or 5.7 percent from the previous year; and
- $513 million in reserve balances, or 9.1 percent of recurring appropriations.

Vetoed language in the act includes provisions that would have:

- allowed legislative committees and staff access to the Student Teacher Accountability Reporting System (STARS) and Operating Budget Management System (OBMS) databases at the Public Education Department (PED);
- capped funding per student for charter schools at district levels in which the charter school is located;

- targeted funding for K-3 Plus and New Mexico Pre-K to direct instruction, transportation, and administrative expenses;
- targeted funding for interventions in low performing schools (D and F) for reading or instructional coaches;
- required reports to standing legislative committees regarding disbursement of emergency supplemental funds;
- required PED to align any reading adoption for instructional materials to Common Core State Standards (CCSS); and
- limited the special appropriation for transition to the CCSS to professional development for teachers and school leaders on the new content.

FY 13 PUBLIC SCHOOL SUPPORT AND RELATED APPROPRIATIONS

Table 1, FY 13 Public School Support and Related Appropriations, summarizes the recurring and the nonrecurring public school support and education-related appropriations.

In total, the General Appropriation Act of 2012 appropriates over $2.45 billion for Public School Support and related recurring appropriations. The appropriations include:

- $2.27 billion to the State Equalization Guarantee (SEG). Considering only General Fund dollars, this figure is a $48.1 million, or 2.2 percent, increase over FY 12 (lines 19-20);
- nearly $129.2 million for categorical public school support (line 34) for statutorily created funds and initiatives, including public school transportation, supplemental distributions, the Instructional Material Fund, dual credit instructional materials, and the Indian Education Fund; and
- approximately $52.6 million (see line 57) to fund the operations of PED and other education-related initiatives funded with recurring dollars, including:
 - the operations of regional education cooperatives;
 - K-3 Plus;
 - New Mexico PreK;
 - Early Childhood Education;
 - Early Reading Initiative;
 - Innovative Digital Education and Learning (IDEAL-NM);
 - the operational costs for the OBMS and the STARS;
 - Advanced Placement;
 - Apprenticeship Assistance;
 - College and Career Readiness;
 - Mock Trials Program;
 - Breakfast for Elementary Students; and
 - the Graduation, Reality, and Dual-Roles Skills (GRADS) program.

In nonrecurring dollars for FY 13, the 2012 Legislature appropriated:

- $4.0 million for emergency support to school districts experiencing shortfalls (line 62);
- $1.5 million in emergency support. Combined with the $4.0 million in recurring dollars for emergency supplemental, nearly $5.5 million will be available to provide financial support to school districts or state-chartered charter schools statewide. Language in the General Appropriation Act of 2012 and provisions in the Public School Finance Act prohibit the distribution of emergency funds to an entity having cash and invested reserves, or other resources or any combination thereof, equaling 5.0 percent or more of its operational budget;

- $1.0 million to PED for the Common Core Transition;
- $1.5 million for K-12 science instructional materials for school districts with low student performance in science;
- $2.5 million for supplemental funding for increases in school district and charter school fixed costs;
- $1.5 million for increased fuel costs faced by school districts and state-chartered charter schools (from the Emergency Transportation Fund);
- $1.0 million to extend through FY 13 the period of time to expend $1.0 million from the “Lockbox” to implement a new teacher evaluation system based on student achievement and growth;
- $450,000 for OBMS maintenance and support; and
- $200,000 for STARS upgrades and enhancements.

2012-2013 INITIAL PROGRAM UNIT VALUE

For school year 2012-2013, the Secretary-designate of Public Education set a preliminary unit value of $3,668.18, an increase of $69.31, or 1.93 percent, from the final school year 2011-2012 unit value of $3,598.87.

The preliminary unit value is based on an appropriated program cost of approximately $2.3 billion and projected statewide program units of 639,161.245 for school year 2012-2013.

For informational purposes, Table 2, *History of the Unit Value, summarizes the changes to the unit value since 1974.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CAPITAL OUTLAY

Table 3, Education-related 2012 Severance Tax Bond Projects, and Table 4, *Education-related 2012 General Obligation Bond Projects, summarize authorized public education-related capital outlay projects.

Please note that the projects in Table 3 include the reauthorization of $2.5 million from a prior information technology appropriation to the Human Services Department (Laws 2011, Chapter 5, Section 11) for the purchase of school transportation buses by PED.

Also to be noted is enacted LESC-endorsed legislation to:

- make the New Mexico School for the Blind and Visually Impaired (NMSBVI) and the New Mexico School for the Deaf (NMSD) eligible for public school capital outlay funding under the public school standards-based capital outlay process;
- establish a local match for NMSBVI and NMSD of 50 percent for educational facilities and 100 percent for support spaces;

- allow the Public School Capital Outlay Council (PSCOC) to adjust or waive the local share if the NMSBVI and NMSD do not have local resources;
- require the PSCOC to adopt and apply appropriate adequacy standards; and
- provide funding on a building-by-building basis until July 1, 2018, after which the NMSBVI and NMSD awards will be based on the entire campus.

- Finally, the bill that was not printed would have amended the Public School Code to include a definition of “developmentally delayed” in reference to the provision of speech-only services for three- and four-year-olds.

LEGISLATIVE MEMORIALS DIRECTED TO THE LESC

In addition to HM 13, described above under “Legislation Endorsed by the LESC,” the House and the Senate passed four memorials in their respective houses that request studies by, or presentations to, the LESC, as follows:

- HM 25 and SM 39, *Develop School Bullying Prevention Programs, encouraging school districts to engage parents and community members in the development of school bullying prevention programs;
- HM 42 and SM 53, *Study Training for Education Careers, requesting that the LESC establish a work group to study, in collaboration with PED, state colleges of education, and other stakeholders, the sustainability for future growth, recruitment, and training of high school students to pursue future careers in education;
- HM 67, *Comprehensive Strategic Education Plan, requesting that the Legislative Council convene a work group to develop a comprehensive strategic education plan to eliminate the achievement gap and increasing the graduation rates of Hispanic, Native American, and African-American students; and requesting that the LESC and the LFC assist in staffing the work group;
- SM 73, *Study Costs of All School Assessments, requesting that the LESC and the LFC, in conjunction with PED, conduct an analysis of the cost, both in instructional time and money, of all assessments of New Mexico students, including proposed assessments related to Common Core State Standards; and that the LESC and LFC report the results of the study to the 2013 Legislature and the Governor; and
- SM 86, *Review A-B-C-D-F School Rating System, requesting that the LESC and the LFC, with the assistance of PED form a work group of education stakeholders to review the recent implementation of the A-B-C-D-F Schools Rating System; and that the work group report its findings and recommendations to the LESC and LFC by October 31, 2012.

Finally, both chambers passed a joint memorial requesting a study of the solvency of the Legislative Lottery Scholarship Fund. More specifically,

- HJM 14a, *Study Lottery Tuition Fund Solvency, requests that the Higher Education Department, in cooperation with the LESC and LFC, appoint a task force to study the solvency of the Lottery Tuition Fund and to make recommendations to the Governor and the First Session of the 51st Legislature by December 1, 2012.

OTHER PUBLIC SCHOOL-RELATED LEGISLATION

The 2012 regular session saw the introduction of approximately 1,035 bills, joint memorials, memorials, and resolutions.

Among them were measures focused on the evaluation of teachers and principals and on the retention and remediation of certain public school students.

Evaluation of Teachers and Principals

The following three bills all proposed to add a new section to the Public School Code to establish new evaluation provisions, specifically:

- CS/CS/HB 249 & CS/HB 251, *Teacher & School Leader Effectiveness Act, would have created the Teacher and School Principal Effectiveness Act. Among its provisions, the bill would have established a council and certain timelines for implementing evaluation measures for teachers based on certain multiple measures and for principals based on certain measures of student and school growth;
- CS/SB 293, *Teacher & School Leader Effectiveness Act, would have created the Teacher and School Leader Effectiveness Act. Among its provisions, the bill would have required the Secretary of Public Education to convene an advisory committee and to develop a formula to measure individual student achievement on the state's standardized assessments; and require school districts to use PED-adopted student achievement growth measures;
- CS/SB 315, *Teacher Evaluation Framework, would have established an evaluation framework for teachers, principals, and head administrators. For teachers, the evaluation was to be based on standards of practice that account for the complexities of teaching, including formative and summative evaluation criteria, evidence of teaching ability, and student learning from multiple sources. For principals and head administrators, the legislation would have required evidence of school leadership effectiveness from multiple sources, established standards for determining school leadership effectiveness, and provided evaluation instruments, rubrics and other tools, and procedures for conducting evaluations.

Retention and Remediation of Certain Public School Students

Finally, the following four bills proposed the repeal of current remediation and promotion provisions in the Public School Code and the creation of a new section to limit school retention through remediation and interventions, specifically:

- CS/CS/SB 50a, *Limit School Retentions through Remediation, would have required, within the first three weeks of the school year, that each student in grades K-8 be evaluated with a reading screening assessment and each student in grades 4-8 be evaluated with a mathematics screening assessment; provided immediate implementation of intervention or remediation for non-proficient reading or mathematics students; required parental notification if a student did not progress after intervention or remediation by the end of the first grading period of the school year; provided that a student who had not achieved grade-level proficiency after intervention or remediation be retained no more than one school year; and provided that, if a parent signed a refusal of retention notice, the student would be promoted to the next grade with an academic improvement plan;

- HB 53, *Limit School Retentions through Remediation, would have required remediation for students not proficient in reading and mathematics at the end of grades K-8; allowed retention of a student who had not achieved grade-level proficiency for no more than one year after consultation with the parent and with the recommendation of teacher and principal; and allowed a parent to sign a refusal of retention waiver (for one year only), in which case the student would have been promoted to the next grade with an academic improvement plan;
- HB 69aa, *Limit School Retentions through Interventions, would have provided intervention and remediation for students in grades K-3 who have been identified as non-proficient in reading; retained a third grade student who is not proficient in reading after intervention and remediation for no more than one year upon recommendation of teacher and principal; provided that a student who is not academically proficient at the end of grades 4 through 8 be provided with remediation; provided that, if a parent refuses to allow the student to participate in prescribed intervention, the school district shall provide an appropriate form that must be signed by the parent; and allowed a parent of a student in kindergarten through grade 3 who is not proficient in reading after completion of intervention and remediation to petition the school principal for promotion if prescribed conditions are met; and
- SB 96aa, *Limit School Retentions through Interventions, would have provided for the retention of a third grade student who is not proficient in reading after completion of intervention and remediation for no more than one year upon recommendation of the teacher and principal; provided that a student who is not academically proficient at the end of grades 4 through 8 not be retained but provided with intensive remediation; and provided for assessment, intervention, and remediation programs to address deficiencies identified between kindergarten and grade 8.

The final attachments to this memo are summaries of all public school-related legislation that passed in the 2012 regular session.

A separate listing of public education-related legislation that did not pass is available upon request from the LESC office.

SECTION 1. SEVERANCE TAX BONDS—AUTHORIZATIONS—APPROPRIATION OF PROCEEDS.—

- A. The state board of finance may issue and sell severance tax bonds in compliance with the Severance Tax Bonding Act in an amount not to exceed the total of the amounts authorized for purposes specified in this act. The state board of finance shall schedule the issuance and sale of the bonds in the most expeditious and economical manner possible upon a finding by the board that the project has been developed sufficiently to justify the issuance and that the project can proceed to contract within a reasonable time. The state board of finance shall further take the appropriate steps necessary to comply with the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds are appropriated for the purposes specified in this act.
- B. The agencies named in this act shall certify to the state board of finance when the money from the proceeds of the severance tax bonds appropriated in this section is needed for the purposes specified in the applicable section of this act. If an agency has not certified the need for severance tax bond proceeds for a particular project, including projects that have been reauthorized, by the end of fiscal year 2014, the authorization for that project is void.
- C. Before an agency may certify for the need of severance tax bond proceeds, the project must be developed sufficiently so that the agency reasonably expects to:
- (1) incur within six months after the applicable bond proceeds are available for the project a substantial binding obligation to a third party to expend at least five percent of the bond proceeds for the project; and
 - (2) spend at least eighty-five percent of the bond proceeds within three years after the applicable bond proceeds are available for the project.
- D. Except at otherwise specifically provided by law:
- (1) the unexpended balance from the proceeds of severance tax bonds appropriated in this act for a project shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund no later than the following dates:
 - (a) for a project for which severance tax bond proceeds were appropriated to match federal grants, six months after completion of the project;
 - (b) for a project for which severance tax bond proceeds were appropriated to purchase vehicles, including emergency vehicles and other vehicles that require special equipment; heavy equipment; books; educational technology; or other equipment or furniture that is not related to a more inclusive construction or renovation project, at the end of the fiscal year two years following the fiscal year in which the severance tax bond proceeds were made available for the purchase; and
 - (c) for any other project for which severance tax bonds were appropriated, within six months of completion of the project, but no later than the end of fiscal year 2016; and
 - (2) all remaining balances from the proceeds of severance tax bonds appropriated for a project in this act shall revert to the severance tax bonding fund three months after the latest reversion date specified for that type of project in Paragraph (1) of this subsection.
- E. Except for appropriations to the capital program fund, money from severance tax bond proceeds provided pursuant to this act shall not be used to pay indirect project costs.
- F. Except for a project that was originally funded using a tax-exempt loan or bond issue, a project involving repayment of debt previously incurred shall be funded through the issuance of taxable severance tax bonds with a term that does not extend beyond the fiscal year in which they are issued.
- G. For the purpose of this section, "unexpended balance" means the remainder of an appropriation after reserving for unpaid costs and expenses covered by binding written obligations to third parties.
