

Legislative Council Service
Financial Assistant I

Salary: $55,993 – $65,886 BOE

Reports to: Acting Supervisor and Assistant Director of Administration Services

INTRODUCTION

The legislative council service (LCS) is the central drafting, legal and policy research agency for the New Mexico legislature. The LCS also serves the executive and judicial agencies and is the main point of contact for members of the public who are interested in legislative matters. The LCS is nonpartisan, and much of the agency's work is confidential. The primary job of each LCS employee is to help the agency meet the expectations of the people it serves and to maintain and enhance the integrity and effectiveness of the legislature and the legislative process.

SUPERVISION AND GUIDELINES

Under general direction. Guidelines include state and federal laws, rules and regulations, agency policies and procedures and accounting manuals.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED

The legislative financial assistant I performs a variety of payroll, procurement, accounting and budgetary functions.

Prepare, process and review accounting, payroll and budget documents and reconcile accounts such as biweekly payroll, payment expenditures and monthly fiscal reports for accuracy; assist the certified procurement officer with procurement verification and compliance with laws, regulations and accounting procedures; ensure that expenditures are within authorized budgets; administer employee benefits; gather data from financial records to prepare special reports for management; assist in analyzing and maintaining operating budgets; maintain inventories of office supplies; assist the chief financial officer with preparing for the external audit as needed; reconcile legislator travel monthly in preparation and verification of the end of year member reports; assist members with travel reimbursements; assist staff with questions related to committees, travel and payroll as needed; communicate and maintain professional working relationships with DFA, PERA, State Treasurer and other outside agencies as needed.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Individuals in this position make daily decisions concerning the accounting treatment of financial transactions, recommend solutions to accounting problems occurring in the agency operations and propose changes or revisions to the accounting system or its operational features. The incumbent must be able to work under stressful conditions.

Ability to accurately interpret, analyze, summarize and compile financial data; use good judgment in appraising financial situations; apply state laws and regulations to accounting documents and to procurement matters where appropriate; prepare reports; comprehend accounting language, software and documents; present comments clearly and concisely; operate equipment in order to complete accounting functions; and maintain effective working relationships with associates and other individuals.

Required to participate in continuous and ongoing training through DFA and other state agencies.

Assist members and staff with accounting, per diem and mileage questions.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Associates degree or years of relevant experience equivalent to a degree. Accounting certificate or 12 hours of accounting principles is preferred

Basic knowledge of accounting methods and principles and their application to public accounting; state accounting and budgeting laws, regulations and manuals; methods to collect and analyze financial data; report preparation; and accounting documents and their use.

Good knowledge of accounting methods and principles and their application to public accounting; state accounting and budgeting laws, regulations and manuals; methods to collect and analyze financial data; report preparation; and accounting documents and their use.

WORKING CONDITIONS

Employees work in a professional office setting in the State Capitol. During legislative sessions, the agency is open seven days a week, long hours are the norm, and staff may be on-call depending on session demands. Travel and additional hours are sometimes required, more so for interim committee staff.

Legislative employees are exempt from the State Personnel Act and from the federal Fair Labor Standards Act. No overtime pay is provided to regular, year-round staff. Compensatory time is provided at the discretion of the LCS director for some of the additional time worked during session.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

Employees work in a general office setting, some lifting and carrying of files, boxes and computer equipment is common.

SALARY RANGE

$55,993 – $65,886 BOE

Please send your application or resume to Ashley Archuleta at Ashley.archuleta@nmlegis.gov