SENATE BILL 21

46TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 2003

INTRODUCED BY

Joseph J. Carraro

AN ACT

RELATING TO CIVIL COMMITMENT; PROVIDING FOR THE INVOLUNTARY CIVIL COMMITMENT OF SEXUAL PREDATORS; ENACTING THE SEXUAL PREDATOR CIVIL COMMITMENT ACT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. SHORT TITLE. -- This act may be cited as the "Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act".

Section 2. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS. -- The legislature finds that:

A. there exists an extremely dangerous group of sexually violent predators who have a mental abnormality or personality disorder and who are likely to engage in repeat acts of sexual violence if not treated for their mental abnormality or personality disorder;

B. because the existing civil commitment procedures

[bracketed material] = del etc

1 are inadequate to address the special needs of sexually violent 2 predators and the risks they present to society, a separate 3 involuntary civil commitment process for the potentially long-4 term care, treatment and control of sexually violent predators 5 is necessary; and 6 C. because of the nature of the mental 7 abnormalities or personality disorders from which sexually 8 violent predators suffer, and the dangers they present, it is 9 necessary to house involuntarily committed sexually violent 10 predators in an environment separate from persons otherwise 11 involuntarily committed.

12 Section 3. DEFINITIONS.--As used in the Sexual Predator
13 Civil Commitment Act:

1 doubt to have been sexually motivated;

2 J. "sexually violent predator" means a person who

6 repeat acts of sexual violence and who has a serious difficulty 7 in controlling his behavior;

8 K. "transitional release" means any halfway house,

14 treatment, supervision or other services for committed persons.

15 Section 4. NOTICE OF RELEASE OF POTENTIAL PREDATOR-- 16 EVALUATION BY MULTIDISCIPLINARY TEAM AND ATTORNEY GENERAL. --

17 A. When it appears to an agency with jurisdiction 18 that a person may be a sexually violent predator, the agency 19 shall give written notice to the attorney general and the 20 multidisciplinary team established in Subsection C of this 21 section. The notice shall be given no less than ninety days 22 prior to:

23 (1) the anticipated release from total
24 confinement of a person who has been convicted of a sexually 25 violent offense, except that in the case of persons who are

. 142071. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 returned to confinement for no more than ninety days as a 2 result of revocation of parole or other post-release 3 supervision, written notice shall be given as soon as 4 practicable following the person's readmission to confinement;

5 (2) the release of a person who has been 6 charged with a sexually violent offense and who has been 7 determined to be incompetent to stand trial; or 8 (3) the release of a person who has been found 9 not guilty by reason of insanity of a sexually violent offense.

10 B. The agency with jurisdiction shall inform the 11 attorney general and the multidisciplinary team of the 12 following:

13 (1) the potential predator's name, identifying 14 factors, anticipated future residence and offense history; and 15 (2) documentation of institutional adjustment

16 and any treatment received.

17 C. The secretary of corrections shall establish a 18 multidisciplinary team, which may include individuals from 19 other state agencies, to review available records of each 20 person referred to the team pursuant to Subsection A of this 21 section. The team, within thirty days of receiving notice, 22 shall assess whether the potential predator is a sexually 23 violent predator. The team shall notify the attorney general 24 of its assessment.

25 D. The attorney general shall appoint a

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 prosecutor's review committee to review the records of each 2 person referred to the attorney general pursuant to Subsection 3 A of this section. The prosecutor's review committee shall 4 assist the attorney general in the determination of whether the 5 person is a sexually violent predator. The assessment of the 6 multidisciplinary team shall be made available to the attorney 7 general and the prosecutor's review committee.

8 E. The agency with jurisdiction and its employees
9 and officials, members of the multidisciplinary team, members 10 of the prosecutor's review committee and individuals 11 contracting, appointed or volunteering to perform services 12 pursuant to this section shall be immune from liability for any 13 good-faith conduct under this section.

14 F. The provisions of this section are not 15 jurisdictional, and failure to comply with its provisions does 16 not prevent the attorney general from proceeding against a 17 person otherwise subject to commitment pursuant to the Sexual 18 Predator Civil Commitment Act.

19 Section 5. PETITION FOR COMMITMENT. --

20 A. Upon a determination by the attorney general and 21 the prosecutor's review committee pursuant to Section 4 of the 22 Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act that a potential predator 23 is a sexually violent predator, the attorney general may file a 24 petition with the district court, within seventy-five days of 25 the date the attorney general received the written notice by

. 142071. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 the agency of jurisdiction as provided in Subsection A of 2 Section 4 of the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act, alleging 3 that the person is a sexually violent predator and stating 4 sufficient facts to support the allegation.

5 B. The provisions of this section are not 6 jurisdictional, and failure to comply with its provisions in no 7 way prevents the attorney general from proceeding against a 8 person otherwise subject to the provisions of the Sexual 9 Predator Civil Commitment Act.

10 Section 6. DETERMINATION OF PROBABLE CAUSE. --

11 A. Upon filing of a petition pursuant to Section 5
12 of the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act, the district court 13 shall determine whether probable cause exists to believe that 14 the potential predator is a sexually violent predator. If the 15 court determines that probable cause exists, the court shall 16 direct that the potential predator be taken into custody.

17 B. Within seventy-two hours after a potential 18 predator is taken into custody pursuant to Subsection A of this 19 section, the potential predator shall be provided with notice 20 of, and an opportunity to appear in person at, a hearing to 21 contest probable cause as to whether the potential predator is 22 a sexually violent predator. At the hearing, the court shall:

23 (1) verify the potential predator's identity;

24 and

25 (2) determine whether probable cause exists to 1 believe that the potential predator is a sexually violent

2 predator. The state may rely upon the petition or supplement
3 the petition with additional documentary evidence or live 4 testimony.

5 C. At the probable cause hearing, the potential 6 predator has, in addition to the rights previously specified, 7 the right to:

- 8 (1) be represented by counsel;
- 9 (2) present evidence on the potential 10 predator's behalf;
- 11 (3) cross-examine witnesses who testify 12 against the potential predator; and
- 13 (4) view and copy all petitions and reports in 14 the court file.

15 D. If the court determines that there is probable 16 cause that the potential predator is a sexually violent 17 predator, the court shall direct that the potential predator be 18 transferred to a county jail or other appropriate secure 19 facility for an evaluation as to whether the potential predator 20 is a sexually violent predator. The evaluation shall be 21 conducted by a person, appointed by the court, deemed to be 22 professionally qualified to conduct the examination.

23 Section 7. TRIAL--PROCEDURE. --

24 A. Within sixty days after the completion of a 25 hearing held pursuant to Section 6 of the Sexual Predator Civil

1 Commitment Act, the court shall conduct a trial to determine 2 whether the person is a sexually violent predator. The trial 3 may be continued upon the request of either party and a showing 4 of good cause, or by the court on its own motion in the due 5 administration of justice, and when the potential predator will 6 not be substantially prejudiced.

7 B. At all stages of the proceedings under the 8 Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act, any person subject to 9 that act shall be entitled to the assistance of counsel, and if 10 the person is indigent, the court shall appoint counsel to 11 assist the person.

12 C. Whenever any person is subjected to an 13 examination under the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act, the 14 person may retain experts or professional persons to perform an 15 examination on the person's behalf. When the person wishes to 16 be examined by a qualified expert or professional person of the 17 person's own choice, the examiner may have reasonable access to 18 the person for the purpose of the examination, as well as to 19 all relevant medical and psychological records and reports.

20 D. In the case of a potential predator who is 21 indigent, the court, upon the potential predator's request, 22 shall determine whether the services are necessary and if 23 compensation for the services is reasonable. If the court 24 determines that the services are necessary and the expert or 25 professional person's requested compensation for such services

1 is reasonable, the court shall assist the potential predator in 2 obtaining an expert or professional person to perform an 3 examination or participate in the trial on the potential 4 predator's behalf. The court shall approve payment for such 5 services upon the filing of a certified claim for compensation 6 supported by a written statement specifying the time expended, 7 services rendered, expenses incurred on behalf of the potential 8 predator and compensation received in the same case or for the 9 same services from any other source.

10 E. The potential predator, the attorney general or 11 the court may demand that the trial be before a jury. A demand 12 for a jury trial shall be filed, in writing, at least four days 13 prior to trial. A jury shall consist of twelve jurors unless 14 the parties agree in writing with the approval of the court 15 that the jury shall consist of any number of jurors less than 16 twelve. If no demand is made, the trial shall be before the 17 court without a jury.

18 Section 8. TRIAL--DETERMINATION--COMMITMENT PROCEDURE.--

19 A. In a trial conducted pursuant to Section 7 of 20 the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act, the court or jury 21 shall determine whether, beyond a reasonable doubt, the 22 potential predator is a sexually violent predator; provided 23 that if the determination is made by a jury, it shall be by 24 unanimous verdict. If the court or jury determines that the 25 person is a sexually violent predator, the person shall be

[bracketed material] = delete

1 committed to the custody of the secretary for care, treatment 2 and control until such time as the committed person's mental 3 abnormality or personality disorder has so changed that the 4 person is safe to be at large. The care, treatment and control 5 shall be provided at a facility operated by the department. At 6 all times, a committed person committed for care, treatment and 7 control by the department shall be kept in a secure facility 8 and shall be segregated at all times from other patients under 9 the supervision of the secretary. The department may enter 10 into an agreement with the corrections department for the 11 confinement of sexually violent predators. Sexually violent 12 predators who are in the confinement of the corrections 13 department pursuant to an agreement shall be housed and managed 14 separately from offenders in the custody of the corrections 15 department, and except for occasional instances of supervised 16 incidental contact, shall be segregated from such offenders.

17 B. If a committed person, while committed to the 18 custody of the secretary pursuant to the Sexual Predator Civil 19 Commitment Act, is taken into custody by a law enforcement 20 officer for a parole revocation proceeding or an arrest or 21 conviction for a criminal offense of any nature, upon release 22 from the custody of the law enforcement officer, the sexually 23 violent predator shall be returned to the custody of the 24 secretary for further treatment pursuant to the Sexual Predator 25 Civil Commitment Act. During any period of time a committed

. 142071. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 person is not in the actual custody or supervision of the 2 secretary, the secretary shall be excused from the provisions 3 of Section 9 of the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act. The 4 secretary shall give notice to the court as soon as reasonably 5 possible after the taking of the committed person into custody 6 that the committed person is no longer in treatment pursuant to 7 the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act and shall give notice 8 to the court when the committed person is returned to the 9 custody of the secretary for further treatment.

10 C. If the court or jury is not satisfied beyond a 11 reasonable doubt that the person is a sexually violent 12 predator, the court shall direct the person's release.

13 D. Upon a mistrial, the court shall direct that the 14 person be held at a county jail or other appropriate secure 15 facility until another trial is conducted. Any subsequent 16 trial following a mistrial shall be held within ninety days of 17 the previous trial, unless the subsequent trial is continued as 18 provided in Section 7 of the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment 19 Act.

20 E. If the potential predator charged with a 21 sexually violent offense has been found incompetent to stand 22 trial, and the potential predator's commitment is sought 23 pursuant to this section, the judge or jury shall first hear 24 evidence and determine whether the person did commit the act or 25 acts charged. The hearing on this issue shall comply with all

. 142071. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 the procedures specified in Section 7 of the Sexual Predator
2 Civil Commitment Act and this section. In addition, the rules
3 of evidence applicable in criminal cases shall apply, and all 4 constitutional rights available to defendants at criminal 5 trials, other than the right not to be tried while incompetent, 6 shall apply. After hearing evidence on the issue, the judge or 7 jury shall make specific findings on whether the potential 8 predator did commit the act or acts charged, the extent to 9 which the person's incompetence or developmental disability 10 affected the outcome of the hearing, including its effect on 11 the person's ability to consult with and assist counsel and to 12 testify on the person's own behalf, the extent to which the 13 evidence could be reconstructed without the assistance of the 14 person and the strength of the prosecution's case. If after 15 the conclusion of the hearing on this issue, the judge or jury 16 finds, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the person did commit 17 the act or acts charged, the court shall enter a final order, 18 appealable by the person on that issue, and may proceed to 19 consider whether the person should be committed pursuant to 20 this section.

21 F. Any determination that a person is a sexually 22 violent predator pursuant to this section may be appealed; 23 provided that the potential predator shall not be entitled to 24 release pending the appeal.

25 Section 9. ANNUAL EXAMINATION AND REVIEW. --

. 142071. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 A. Each person committed under the Sexual Predator 2 Civil Commitment Act shall have an examination of that person's 3 mental condition made once every year. The person may retain, 4 or, if the person is indigent and so requests, the court may 5 appoint a qualified professional to examine the person, and the 6 professional shall have access to all records concerning that 7 person. An annual report shall be provided by the secretary to 8 the court that committed the person, and the court shall 9 conduct an annual review of the status of the committed person.
10 Nothing contained in the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act 11 prohibits the committed person from otherwise petitioning the 12 court for discharge at this review. The secretary shall 13 provide the committed person with an annual written notice of 14 the committed person's right to petition the court for release 15 over the secretary's objection. The notice shall contain a 16 waiver of rights. The secretary shall forward the notice and 17 waiver form to the court with the annual report. The committed 18 person shall have a right to representation by an attorney for 19 the review, but the committed person is not entitled to be 20 present at the review.

21 B. If the committed person has petitioned the court 22 for release and if, after reviewing the annual report and the 23 information contained in the petition, the court at the review 24 determines that probable cause exists to believe that the 25 person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = del etc

1 changed that the person is safe to be placed in transitional 2 release, the court shall set a hearing on the issue. At the 3 hearing for transitional release, the committed person shall be 4 entitled to be present and entitled to the benefit of all 5 constitutional protections that were afforded the committed 6 person at the initial commitment trial. The attorney general
7 shall represent the state and may have the committed person 8 evaluated by professionals chosen by the state. The committed 9 person may also have professionals evaluate the committed 10 person on the committed person's behalf, and the court shall 11 appoint an expert if the committed person is indigent and 12 requests an appointment. Either party may demand a jury trial.
13 The burden of proof at the hearing shall be upon the state to 14 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the committed person's 15 mental abnormality or personality disorder remains such that 16 the person is not safe to be placed in transitional release and 17 if placed in transitional release is likely to engage in acts 18 of sexual violence.

19 C. If, after the hearing, the court or jury is 20 convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the person is not 21 appropriate for transitional release, the court shall order
22 that the person remain in secure commitment. Otherwise, the 23 court shall order that the person be placed in transitional 24 release and the secretary shall transfer the person to the 25 transitional release program.

. 142071. 2

1 Section 10. PETITION FOR TRANSITIONAL RELEASE--

2 PROCEDURE.--

3 A. If the secretary determines that a committed
4 person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so
5 changed that the person is not likely to commit predatory acts 6 of sexual violence if placed in transitional release, the 7 secretary shall authorize the committed person to petition the 8 court for transitional release. The petition shall be served 9 upon the court and the attorney general. The court, upon 10 receipt of the petition for transitional release, shall order a 11 hearing within thirty days. The attorney general shall 12 represent the state, and may have the committed person examined 13 by a professional of the attorney general's choice. The 14 hearing shall be before a jury if demanded by either the 15 committed person or the attorney general. The burden of proof 16 shall be upon the attorney general to show beyond a reasonable 17 doubt that the committed person's mental abnormality or 18 personality disorder remains such that the committed person is 19 not safe to be at large and that if placed in transitional 20 release is likely to commit a sexually violent offense.

21 B. If, after the hearing, the court is convinced
22 beyond a reasonable doubt that the committed person is not
23 appropriate for transitional release, the court shall order
24 that the person remain in secure commitment. Otherwise, the 25 court shall order that the person be placed in transitional

. 142071. 2

1 release and the secretary shall transfer the person to the
2 transitional release program.

3 Section 11. TRANSITIONAL RELEASE. --

4 A. The secretary may contract for services to be 5 provided in the transitional release program. During any 6 period the committed person is in transitional release, the 7 person shall comply with any rules the secretary may establish 8 for the program and every directive of the treatment staff of 9 the transitional release program.

10 B. At any time during which the committed person is 11 in the transitional release program and the treatment staff 12 determines that the committed person has violated any rule or 13 directive associated with the transitional release program, the 14 treatment staff may remove the person from the transitional 15 release program and return the person to the secure commitment 16 facility, or may request the district court to issue an 17 emergency ex parte order directing any law enforcement officer 18 to take the person into custody and return the person to the 19 secure commitment facility. Any such request may be made 20 verbally or by telephone, but shall be followed in written or 21 facsimile form delivered to the court by not later than 5:00 22 p.m. of the first day the district court is open for the 23 transaction of business after the verbal or telephonic request 24 was made.

25 C. Upon the committed person being returned to the

. 142071. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 secure commitment facility from the transitional release 2 program, notice thereof shall be given by the secretary to the 3 court. The court shall set the matter for a hearing within two 4 working days of receipt of notice of the person's having been 5 returned to the secure commitment facility and cause notice 6 thereof to be given to the attorney general, the committed 7 person and the secretary. The attorney general shall have the 8 burden of proof to show probable cause that the person violated 9 conditions of transitional release. The hearing shall be heard 10 by the court, without a jury. At the conclusion of the hearing 11 the court shall issue an order returning the person to the 12 secure commitment facility or to the transitional release 13 program, and may order such other further conditions with which 14 the person must comply if the person is returned to the 15 transitional release program.

16 Section 12. CONDITIONAL RELEASE. --

17 A. During any period the committed person is in 18 transitional release, the person at least annually, and at any 19 other time deemed appropriate by the treatment staff, shall be 20 examined by the treatment staff to determine if the person's 21 mental abnormality or personality disorder has so changed so as 22 to warrant the person being considered for conditional release.
23 The treatment staff shall forward a report of its examination
24 to the court. After reviewing the report, if the court 25 determines that probable cause exists to believe that the

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = del ete

1 person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so
2 changed that the person is safe to be placed in conditional 3 release, the court shall then set a hearing on the issue. The 4 attorney general shall have the burden of proof to show beyond 5 a reasonable doubt that the person's mental abnormality or 6 personality disorder remains such that the person is not safe 7 to be at large and that if placed on conditional release is 8 likely to engage in repeat acts of sexual violence. The person 9 shall have the same rights as enumerated in Section 7 of the 10 Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act. Subsequent to either a 11 court review or a hearing, the court shall issue an appropriate 12 order with findings of fact. The order of the court shall be 13 provided to the attorney general, the person and the secretary.

14 B. If, after the hearing, the court is convinced
15 beyond a reasonable doubt that the person is not appropriate 16 for conditional release, the court shall order that the person 17 remain either in secure commitment or in transitional release.
18 Otherwise, the court shall order that the person be placed on 19 conditional release.

20 Section 13. ~~CONDITIONAL RELEASE--PLAN OF TREATMENT--~~ 21 ~~HEARING FOR FINAL RELEASE. --~~

22 A. If, after a hearing conducted pursuant to 23 Section 12 of the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Act, the 24 court determines that the committed person should be placed on 25 conditional release, the court, based upon the recommendation

1 of the treatment staff, shall establish a plan of treatment 2 that the person shall be ordered to follow. The plan of 3 treatment may include:

4 (1) provisions as to where the committed 5 person shall reside and with whom; and 6 (2) requirements for taking prescribed

7 medications, attending individual and group counseling, 8 maintaining employment, having no contact with children, not 9 frequenting facilities, locations, events or otherwise in which 10 children are likely to be present and not engaging in 11 activities in which contact with children is likely.

12 B. Upon a showing by the committed person that the 13 person accepts the plan of treatment and is prepared to follow
14 it, the court shall release the person from the transitional 15 release program.

16 C. After a minimum of five years has passed in 17 which the committed person has been free of violations of 18 conditions of the person's treatment plan, the treatment staff 19 or other professionals directed by the court may examine the 20 person to determine if the person's mental abnormality or 21 personality disorder has changed so as to warrant being 22 considered for final discharge. A report shall be forwarded to 23 the court. After reviewing the report, if the court determines 24 that probable cause exists to believe that the person's mental 25 abnormality or personality disorder has so changed that the

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 person is safe to be entitled to final discharge, the court
2 shall set a formal hearing on the issue. The attorney general
3 shall have the burden of proof to show beyond a reasonable 4 doubt that the person's mental abnormality or personality 5 disorder remains such that the person is not appropriate for 6 final discharge. The person shall have the same rights as 7 enumerated in Section 7 of the Sexual Predator Civil Commitment 8 Act. Subsequent to either a court review or a hearing, the 9 court shall issue an appropriate order with findings of fact.
10 The order of the court shall be provided to the attorney 11 general, the committed person and the secretary.

12 D. If, after a hearing, the court is convinced
13 beyond a reasonable doubt that the committed person is not 14 appropriate for final discharge, the court shall continue 15 custody of the person with the secretary for placement in a 16 secure commitment facility, transitional release program or 17 conditional release program. Otherwise, the court shall order 18 the person finally discharged. In the event the court does not 19 order final discharge of the person, the committed person still 20 retains the right to annual reviews.

21 E. At any time during which the committed person is 22 on conditional release and the professional designated by the 23 court in the treatment plan to monitor the person's compliance 24 with the plan determines that the person has violated any 25 material condition of that plan, the professional may request

1 the district court to issue an emergency ex parte order 2 directing any law enforcement officer to take the committed 3 person into custody and return the person to the secure 4 commitment facility. Any such request may be made verbally or 5 by telephone, but shall be followed in written or facsimile 6 form delivered to the court not later than 5:00 p.m. of the 7 first day the district court is open for the transaction of 8 business after the verbal or telephonic request was made.

9 F. Upon the committed person being returned to the 10 secure commitment facility from conditional release, notice 11 thereof shall be given by the secretary to the court. The 12 court shall set the matter for a hearing within two working 13 days of receipt of notice of the person's having been returned 14 to the secure commitment facility and cause notice thereof to 15 be given to the attorney general, the committed person and the 16 secretary. The attorney general shall have the burden of proof 17 to show probable cause that the person violated conditions of 18 conditional release. The hearing shall be to the court, 19 without a jury. At the conclusion of the hearing the court 20 shall issue an order returning the person to the secure 21 commitment facility, to the transitional release program or to 22 conditional release, and may order such other further 23 conditions with which the person must comply if the person is 24 returned to either the transitional release program or to 25 conditional release.

3 petition was frivolous or that the committed person's condition 4 had not so changed that the person was safe to be at large, the 5 court shall deny the subsequent petition unless it contains 6 facts upon which a court could find the condition of the 7 committed person had so changed that a hearing was warranted.
8 Upon receipt of a first or subsequent petition from a committed 9 person without the secretary's approval, the court shall 10 endeavor whenever possible to review the petition and determine
