

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 07

47TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 2005

INTRODUCED BY

Greg Payne

A JOINT RESOLUTION

PROPOSING TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF NEW MEXICO TO AUTHORIZE AN INITIATIVE PROCESS FOR STATE LAWS OR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. It is proposed to amend Article 4 of the constitution of New Mexico by adding a new section to read:

"A. The people reserve the power of initiative to amend the constitution and laws of New Mexico.

B. The initiative is the power of the people to propose statutes and amendments to the constitution of New Mexico and to adopt or reject them. A constitutional amendment proposed by initiative requires a petition signed by a number of qualified voters equaling not less than eight percent of the votes cast for all candidates for governor at the last

1 gubernatorial election, and a statute proposed by initiative
2 requires a petition signed by a number of qualified voters
3 equaling not less than five percent of the votes cast for all 4 candidates for governor at the last gubernatorial election.

5 C. A petition for a statute, filed with the 6 secretary of state not less than ninety days before a regular,
7 special or extraordinary session of the legislature, shall be 8 submitted by the secretary of state to the legislature for its 9 consideration at the session. If the initiative is enacted 10 into law by the legislature, then the law is effective upon 11 signature by the governor, unless the initiative provides for a 12 later effective date. If the initiative, as proposed, is not 13 enacted into law, then it shall be placed on the ballot 14 pursuant to Subsection D of this section. If the proposed 15 initiative is amended and enacted into law, then neither the 16 proposed initiative nor the enacted law shall be effective and 17 both shall be placed on the ballot pursuant to Subsection D of 18 this section.

19 D. The question of whether to approve or reject a 20 petition for a constitutional amendment shall be submitted to 21 the voters by the secretary of state at the next general or 22 special statewide election called for that purpose occurring
23 not less than four months after the initial petition is filed 24 with the secretary of state. The question of whether to 25 approve or reject a statutory initiative required to be placed

1 on the ballot pursuant to Subsection C of this section shall be 2 submitted to the voters by the secretary of state at the next
3 general or special statewide election called for that purpose 4 occurring after the end of the legislative session during which 5 the initiative was considered. An initiative approved by a 6 majority of voters voting on the question shall take effect the 7 day after certification of the election results by the state
8 canvassing board, unless the initiative provides for a later
9 effective date; provided that if provisions of two or more 10 initiatives approved at the same election conflict, those of 11 the initiative receiving the highest number of votes shall take 12 effect. A special election for consideration of an initiative 13 pursuant to this subsection may be called by the governor or 14 may be held pursuant to a law enacted by the legislature.

15 E. No statutory initiative shall create a public 16 debt or provide for local or special laws.

17 F. No initiative shall embrace more than one 18 subject.

19 G. A statutory initiative that has been approved by 20 the voters may only be amended or repealed by subsequent action
21 of the legislature with a two-thirds' vote of the members 22 elected to each house.

23 H. An initiative for a statute or constitutional 24 amendment that has been rejected by the voters shall not be 25 placed on a ballot again pursuant to this section until a

1 minimum of two years has elapsed.

2 I. It is a felony for any person to sign a petition 3 with a name other than his own, to sign more than once for the 4 same measure or to sign a petition when not a qualified 5 elector.

6 J. The legislature shall enact laws necessary for 7 the effective exercise of the power hereby reserved."

8 Section 2. The amendment proposed by this resolution 9 shall be submitted to the people for their approval or 10 rejection at the next general election or at any special 11 election prior to that date that may be called for that 12 purpose.
