SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Bill 1041 appropriates $50.0 thousand from the general fund to the Indian Affairs Department for the purpose of developing and implementing an archival library system at the Institute of American Indians Arts (IAIA).

Significant Issues

The Indian Affairs Department contributes the following.

The IAIA has a need to expand its capacity for archival library system so that it can accommodate important collections of research and historical materials that have been offered them:

- 1) The Lloyd Kiva New Collection of papers and memorabilia. Lloyd Kiva New was the former President of IAIA that transformed IAIA into the pre-eminent contemporary art center for Native American students that it has been for the last forty years. Lloyd Kiva New was an artist, art educator, art historian and visionary, who served as a mentor to many of today's great Native American artist and art teachers. IAIA would like to accept the collection of Lloyd Kiva New's papers; however there is a need to enhance their library's archival capabilities to accept such a valuable collection so that students, scholars and the public can access these valuable historical documents.

- 2) The Stuart Udall Collection. Stuart Udall has offered his collection of personal papers and memorabilia to the IAIA's library. Again, the funding would upgrade the library's capabilities so that other important collections from Indian artists, tribal leaders, teachers, politicians, and other indigenous leaders would find a safe and secure home at IAIA.

As Santa Fe is the center of the indigenous art world and a world class art center, upgrading the IAIA library system would be of use to many scholars who visit the many New Mexico museums to conduct research, and to the many local students attending IAIA and other area colleges and universities.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

The appropriation of $50 thousand contained in this bill is a recurring expense to the general fund. Any unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of FY06 shall revert to the general fund.
