Fiscal impact reports (FIRs) are prepared by the Legislative Finance Committee (LFC) for standing finance committees of the NM Legislature. The LFC does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of these reports if they are used for other purposes.

Current FIRs (in HTML & Adobe PDF formats) are available on the NM Legislative Website (legis.state.nm.us). Adobe PDF versions include all attachments, whereas HTML versions may not. Previously issued FIRs and attachments may be obtained from the LFC in Suite 101 of the State Capitol Building North.

SUMMARY

Senate Joint Memorial 2 (SJM2) acknowledges the name change of the Pueblo of San Juan to Ohkay Owingeh and the efforts of Governor Joe Garcia to restore the community's true tribal name; directs the state to change highway and road signs, maps and other public documents to reflect the name change; and requests the U.S. Department of Interior to acknowledge the name change.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

While there are no direct costs involved with a name change itself, expenditures would be required to change road signs, maps and other documents. The NM Department of Transportation estimates this amount as $3 thousand non-recurring general fund.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

The Indian Affairs Department contributed the following:

On December 14, 2005, Governor Richardson issued a proclamation recognizing the name change from San Juan Pueblo to its traditional and true name, Ohkay Owingeh. He also directed that all official publications and records of the State of New Mexico be changed to reflect the name change. Further, he instructed all state agencies and offices to use the name Ohkay Owingeh in all official documents and records beginning December 19, 2005.
