SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Memorial 10 proclaims Thursday, February 8, 2007, as "ARCA DAY" at the New Mexico State Senate and requests that recognition and appreciation be extended to ARCA in honor of its fiftieth anniversary.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

The memorial provides the following:

- ARCA began providing community-based support services with its child study center and its preschool and recreational programs in 1957; and
- ARCA was founded by a group of caring families seeking community-based opportunities for their developmentally disabled children; and
- ARCA continues to honor the preference of people with developmental disabilities to live, work and play in their local communities through its encouragement and support of families and the greater Albuquerque community; and
- ARCA is the state's largest not-for-profit provider of services to the developmentally disabled, offering an array of critical support services to over five hundred children and adults each year; and

- ARCA offers its recipients many options, including community living, family living, employment, community-inclusion services and a statewide prader will: project; and
- ARCA's compassionate work force of over six hundred employees helps individuals with disabilities fulfill their daily needs, make meaningful choices, connect with the community and achieve their dreams.

The Memorial resolves that the New Mexico legislature has been a longtime supporter of ARCA and of New Mexico residents with developmental disabilities, and it continues to support them and encourage their involvement with the legislature and society

PERFORMANCE IMPLICATIONS

Copies of this Memorial will be transmitted to the members of ARCA.

OTHER SUBSTANTIVE ISSUES

ARCA provides an array of community-based services at more than 100 locations and has an operating budget exceeding $23 million. Services include community and family living, supported employment, and highly specialized supports for people with developmental disabilities. Services are provided chiefly in the greater Albuquerque area, with specialized services reaching throughout the state, including rural and tribal areas.

WHAT WILL BE THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT ENACTING THIS BILL

February 8, 2007 will not be recognized as “ARCA DAY” at the New Mexico State Senate in recognition of ARCA’s fiftieth anniversary.
