SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Memorial 38 declares March 1, 2007 as “Central New Mexico Community College Day” at the Senate.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

Senate Memorial 38 states that on June 2, 2006, Albuquerque Technical Vocational Institute changed its name to Central New Mexico Community College (CNMCC) to represent more accurately its mission and service area. CNMCC has provided “education you can use” for more than forty years. Hundreds of thousands of individuals have improved their quality of life by obtaining an education from CNMCC and the college is considered New Mexico’s premier community college.

CNMCC has built a regional and national reputation for its high-quality training, innovative programs and positive impact upon economic development. CNMCC has earned state and national awards for quality and it enjoys high staff satisfaction rates with students, faculty and staff, alumni, employers and with the community at large.

The Senate desires to recognize CNMCC for its invaluable contributions to the greater Albuquerque area and the State of New Mexico. The Senate of the State of New Mexico requests that March 1, 2007 be declared “Central New Mexico Community College Day” at the Senate.
