SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Memorial 52 declares that the invaluable contributions of LULAC and LULAC youth be recognized and that Wednesday, February 6, 2008, be declared "League of United Latin American Citizens Day" at the New Mexico House of Representatives.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

House Memorial 52 states the following;

- The league of united Latin American citizens (LULAC) is the largest and oldest Hispanic organization in the United States; and
- LULAC was founded on February 17, 1929 and is celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary; and
- LULAC works to advance the economic condition, educational attainment, political influence, health and civil rights of Hispanic Americans through community-based programs operating at more than seven hundred LULAC councils nationwide; and
- LULAC councils provide more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) in scholarships to Hispanic students each year, conduct citizenship and voter registration drives, develop low-income housing units, conduct youth leadership training programs and seek to empower the Hispanic community at the local, state and national levels; and
- LULAC's national educational service centers provide counseling services to more than eighteen thousand Hispanic students per year at sixteen regional centers; and
- LULAC also provides job-skills and literacy training to the Hispanic community through more than forty-eight employment training centers located throughout the United States; and
- New Mexico is proud to recognize Jessica Martinez, a resident of Las Cruces, who was elected LULAC's national youth president on July 14, 2007 and has served with distinction; and
- Ms. Martinez also serves as the student body president for Mayfield high school in Dona Ana county; and
