SENATE BILL 93

49TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - FIRST SESSION, 2009

INTRODUCED BY

Pete Campos

AN ACT

RELATING TO PUBLIC EDUCATION; PROVIDING FOR AN INTENSIVE NEUROSCIENCE-DRIVEN LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND READING PROFICIENCY INTERVENTION PILOT RESEARCH PROGRAM; MAKING AN APPROPRIATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Section 1. INTENSIVE NEUROSCIENCE-DRIVEN LANGUAGE
DEVELOPMENT AND READING PROFICIENCY INTERVENTION PILOT RESEARCH PROGRAM.--

A. The public education department shall establish a pilot research program in which a contractor provides participating schools with an intensive neuroscience-driven language development and reading proficiency intervention for participating students. The department shall adopt criteria for the application by and selection of schools to participate

1 in the pilot program.

2 B. The public education department shall adopt
3 criteria for the selection of a contractor to provide the pilot
4 program that include neuroscience-based, scientifically
5 validated intervention methods and instructional tools that 6 have been proven to accelerate learning, cognitive ability and 7 language and reading proficiency.

8 C. A school participating in the pilot program
9 shall select high-risk, English-language-learning, special
10 education and below-proficient-reading students to participate
11 in the program. A participating school shall assess each 12 selected student before the student enters and after the 13 student leaves the pilot program to measure the student's 14 progress. The results shall be considered by the public 15 education department for inclusion within a school improvement,
16 corrective action and school restructuring framework.

17 D. Not later than October 1, 2011, the public
18 education department shall provide the legislative education
19 study committee with a report describing the assessment of 20 student progress from participation in the pilot program.

21 Section 2. APPROPRIATION.--Two million dollars
22 ($2,000,000) is appropriated from the general fund to the 23 public education department for expenditure in fiscal years
24 2010 and 2011 to establish an intensive neuroscience-driven
25 language development and reading proficiency intervention pilot
