1 individual and who is an employee of a federal law enforcement
2 agency at a facility in New Mexico that is within twenty miles
3 of an international border may claim a credit if the taxpayer
4 is an employee of a federal law enforcement agency that has 5 qualified pursuant to this section for the calendar year that 6 includes the last day of the taxpayer's taxable year.

7 C. The credit claimed pursuant to this section shall 8 equal the lesser of:

9 (1) the amount of property tax paid by the 10 taxpayer during the taxable year on the taxpayer's primary 11 residence located in a state other than New Mexico; or

12 (2) one thousand nine hundred seventy-five 13 dollars ($1,975).

14 D. The nonresident federal law enforcement employee
15 tax credit shall only be deducted from the taxpayer's New 16 Mexico income tax liability for the taxable year, and any 17 portion of the credit that remains unused at the end of the 18 taxpayer's taxable year shall not be carried forward.

19 E. A husband and wife who file separate returns for 20 a taxable year in which they could have filed a joint return 21 may each claim only one-half of the credit that would have been 22 allowed on a joint return.

23 F. A taxpayer may claim the nonresident federal law
24 enforcement employee tax credit only for taxable years that 25 begin within three years of the date that the taxpayer
