BILL ANALYSIS

Bill Number: HJM 31

50th Legislature, 1st Session, 2011

Tracking Number: .184723.1

Short Title: Legis Support for Tribal Language Survival

Sponsor(s): Representative James Roger Madalena and Others

Analyst: Kevin Force

Date: February 10, 2011

Bill Summary:

HJM 31 directs the Legislature to:

- recognize the unique status of New Mexico's Native American languages and the protection and preservation of these languages as a representation of New Mexico's commitment to its multicultural and multilingual heritage;
- acknowledge the valuable and significant role that New Mexico's Native American languages play in the survival of native communities and cultures;
- recognize that New Mexico's native languages are important for improving the academic success of Native American children by providing opportunities for them to embrace their tribal language heritage, thus enhancing their educational experience and achievement;
- support these efforts by ensuring that resources attached to the Indian Education Act be focused on adequate support of tribally controlled language initiatives; and
- recognize that establishing and sustaining a strong infrastructure for language development and maintenance initiatives for Native Americans, from birth through adulthood, requires technical assistance and ongoing training support provided through the American Indian Language Policy Research and Teacher Training Center.
