HOUSE MEMORIAL 60

51ST LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2014

INTRODUCED BY

Rodolpho "Rudy" S. Martinez

A MEMORIAL

CELEBRATING THE SIXTIETH YEAR OF "SALT OF THE EARTH".

WHEREAS, across the United States, working families are dedicated to economic advancement by promoting fairness in the workplace and establishing policies that help men and women meet the dual demands of work and family; and

WHEREAS, too often, workers who attempt to join unions, assert other rights in the workplace or file complaints for protection of their civil and human rights face employer threats, retaliation and discrimination; and

WHEREAS, on October 17, 1950, in Grant county, New Mexico, the mine workers of the Empire zinc mine decided to strike, demanding an end to discriminatory working conditions and the dual wage system of two-tiered pay being different for Mexican and Mexican American workers as compared to Anglo workers; and

1           WHEREAS, the workers picketed the company gates for eight
2 months until June 1951, when the district court for Grant
3 county issued a court injunction against the workers under the 4 threat of jail time; and

5           WHEREAS, in response, the miners' wives took their posts 6 in a landmark action that advanced the women's rights and 7 empowerment movement, while the men assumed other obligations, 8 including household duties; and

9           WHEREAS, on January 25, 1952, Empire zinc company
10 officials came to an agreement with the strikers to provide 11 better wages and benefits, ending the strike; and

12           WHEREAS, still to this day, too many workers are 13 discriminated against based on their age, gender, race or 14 national origin; and

15           WHEREAS, it should be a priority of the great state of New 16 Mexico to ensure a living wage, safe working and living 17 conditions, education and health care for all workers and 18 residents no matter their age, gender, race or national origin; 19 and

20           WHEREAS, March 14, 2014 marks the sixtieth anniversary of 21 the release of the award winning film, "Salt of the Earth",
22 commemorating and committing to lasting memory the victorious
23 struggle of the Grant county miners and their families;

24           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 25 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO that in recognition
