the public assistance programs authorized by the Public Assistance Act;

D.  within two years immediately prior to the filing of an application for assistance, the person has not made an assignment or transfer of real property unless the person has received a reasonable return for the real property or, if the person has not received a reasonable return, the person is willing to attempt to obtain such return and, if that attempt proves futile, the person is willing to attempt to regain title to the property;

E. the person is not an inmate of any public nonmedical institution at the time of receiving assistance, except that an inmate may be eligible for medical assistance programs administered by the medical assistance division of the department; and

F. the person is a resident of New Mexico."

SECTION 2. INCARCERATED INDIVIDUALS--MEDICAID

ELIGIBILITY.--

A. Incarceration shall not be a basis to deny or terminate eligibility for medicaid.

B. Upon release from incarceration, a formerly incarcerated individual shall remain eligible for medicaid until the individual is determined to be ineligible for medicaid on grounds other than incarceration.

C. An incarcerated individual who was not enrolled in medicaid upon the date that the individual became incarcerated shall be permitted to submit an application for medicaid during the incarcerated individual's period of
D. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to abrogate:

(1) any deadline that governs the processing of applications for medicaid pursuant to existing federal or state law; or

(2) requirements under federal or state law that the human services department be notified of changes in income, resources, residency or household composition.

E. The provisions of this section shall not require the human services department to pay for services on behalf of any incarcerated individual, except as permitted by federal law.

F. A correctional facility shall inform the human services department when an eligible individual is incarcerated and shall notify the department upon that eligible individual's release.

G. The secretary of human services shall adopt and promulgate rules consistent with this section.

H. As used in this section:
