the consumption of the marijuana items in a marijuana consumption area.

- C. A person may purchase and consume marijuana items in a marijuana consumption area on the licensed premises of a marijuana retailer who has been issued an on-site consumption endorsement.
- D. A person who violates Subsection A of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SECTION 35. [NEW MATERIAL] MARIJUANA ITEMS IN A CORRECTIONAL FACILITY PROHIBITED.--

- A. A person shall not knowingly and voluntarily carry, transport or deposit a marijuana item in an institution for the confinement of adult prisoners or in a juvenile detention facility.
- B. A person who violates Subsection A of this section with respect to a prison is guilty of bringing contraband into a prison as provided in Subsection A of Section 30-22-14 NMSA 1978, and with respect to a jail, is guilty of bringing contraband into a jail as provided in Subsection B of Section 30-22-14 NMSA 1978.
- SECTION 36. [NEW MATERIAL] HOMEGROWN MARIJUANA IN PUBLIC VIEW PROHIBITED.--
- A. A person shall not produce, process, keep or store homegrown marijuana or homemade marijuana products if the homegrown marijuana or homemade marijuana products can be readily	seen	bу	normal	unaided	vision	from	а	public	place.

---------	------	----	--------	---------	--------	------	---	--------	--------

B. A person who violates Subsection A of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SECTION 37. [NEW MATERIAL] CERTAIN HOMEMADE MARIJUANA EXTRACTS PROHIBITED.--A person shall not produce, process, keep or store a homemade marijuana extract if the extract is produced or processed using a volatile solvent such as butane, hexane, isopropyl alcohol, ethanol or carbon dioxide.

SECTION 38. [NEW MATERIAL] INCONSISTENT LOCAL LAWS AND ORDINANCES SUPERSEDED AND REPEALED.—Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 39 and 40 of the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act, the provisions of that act shall operate uniformly throughout the state and shall be superior to and shall supersede all local laws or ordinances, including a law or ordinance of a home rule municipality, that are inconsistent or in conflict with that act. Any conflicting local laws or ordinances are repealed.

SECTION 39. [NEW MATERIAL] LOCAL GOVERNMENT AUTHORITY TO REGULATE MARIJUANA RETAILERS AND MARIJUANA WHOLESALERS.--

- A. Municipalities and counties may adopt reasonable time, place and manner regulations related to nuisance aspects of a licensed marijuana retailer's or a marijuana wholesaler's business if the municipality or county makes specific findings that the business would cause adverse effects to occur.
- B. The authority granted to municipalities and .204844.1

counties by this section is in addition to the authority granted to a municipality or county pursuant to its charter, state laws and the constitution of New Mexico.

SECTION 40. [NEW MATERIAL] LOCAL OPTION ELECTION--SALES
NOT AFFECTED BY LOCAL OPTION.--

A. A municipality with a population greater than five thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census, whether or not the county in which that municipality is situated has held an election provided for in this section, or a county in the state may prohibit the operation of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana wholesaler or marijuana retailer upon the following terms and conditions:

the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act, the registered qualified electors of the municipality or county may petition the governing body by filing one or more petitions in the appropriate office to hold an election for the purpose of determining whether to prohibit the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana wholesaler or marijuana retailer in the municipality or county. If the aggregate of the signatures of such electors on all the petitions equals or exceeds five percent of the number of registered voters of the municipality or county, the governing body shall call an election within seventy-five days of the verification of the petition. The date of the filing of the petition shall be the date of the filing of the last petition that brings the number of signatures up to the required five percent; provided, however, that the governing body shall refuse to recognize the petition if more than three months have elapsed between the date of the first signature and the filing of the last petition necessary to bring the number of signatures on the petition up to five percent;

- (2) the election shall be called, conducted, counted and canvassed substantially in the manner provided by law for general elections within the county or special municipal elections within the municipality, except as otherwise provided in this section;
- (3) the votes at the election shall be counted, returned and canvassed as provided for in the case of general elections within the county or special municipal elections within the municipality;
- (4) except as otherwise provided in this section, contests, recounts and rechecks shall be permitted as provided for in the case of candidates for county office in general elections or as provided for in the case of special municipal elections within the municipality. Applications for contests, recounts or rechecks may be filed by any person who voted in the election and service shall be made upon the county clerk or municipal clerk as the case may be;
  - (5) if the majority of all of the votes cast at the election are cast in favor of the prohibition of the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana retailer or marijuana wholesaler in the county or municipality, the chair of the governing body shall declare by order entered upon the records of the county or municipality that the county or municipality has approved the prohibition and shall notify the department of the election results;

shall be held within forty-two days of any primary, general, municipal or school district election. If, within sixty days from the verification of any petition as provided in Paragraph (1) of this subsection, a primary, general, municipal or school election is held, the governing body may call an election for a day not less than sixty days after the primary, general, municipal or school election;

(7) if an election is held pursuant to this section in a county that contains within its limits a municipality of more than five thousand persons according to the most recent federal decennial census, it is not necessary for the registered qualified electors in the municipality to file a separate petition asking for a separate or different vote on the question of whether to prohibit the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana retailer or marijuana wholesaler. The election in the county shall be conducted so as to separate the votes in the municipality from those in the remaining parts of the county. If the majority of the voters in the county, including the voters in the municipality, vote to prohibit the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana retailer or marijuana wholesaler, the county shall not allow the prohibited operations; but if the majority of the votes in the municipality are in favor of allowing the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana retailer or marijuana wholesaler, the municipality shall have allowed the approved operations in the municipality. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent any municipality from having a separate election under the terms of this section; and

- (8) any county or municipality that has voted to prohibit the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana retailer or marijuana wholesaler may vote to discontinue the prohibition and to allow the previously prohibited operations in that county or municipality; the discontinuance shall become effective on the ninetieth day after the local option election is held as provided for in this paragraph.
- B. The provisions of Subsection A of this section shall not prevent a person who resides in a municipality or county that has elected to prohibit the operations of a licensed marijuana processor, marijuana producer, marijuana retailer or marijuana wholesaler from possessing marijuana items that were purchased from licensed marijuana retailers for the person's personal use.

SECTION 41. [NEW MATERIAL] ENFORCEMENT--DUTY OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS.--The state and local law enforcement officers in the state shall enforce the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act and shall assist the department with identifying violations of that act and with apprehending offenders. Any state or local law enforcement officer that has notice or knowledge of or reasonable belief regarding a violation of that act shall immediately notify the district attorney and provide the district attorney with the names and addresses of any witnesses to the violation and other information related to the violation.

SECTION 42. [NEW MATERIAL] CONVICTION OF LICENSEE--DUTY TO NOTIFY THE DEPARTMENT.--All court officials, district attorneys and municipal authorities in the state shall notify the department as soon as possible following the conviction of a person who is licensed pursuant to the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act for a violation of any provision of that act or of a state or local law that relates in any way to marijuana items. The notification shall include information about any acts, practices or other conduct of the licensee that may be subversive of the general welfare or contrary to the spirit of that act and shall make recommendations that the department

[NEW MATERIAL] PROPERTY AND PLACES AS COMMON SECTION 43. NUISANCES . - -

- For the purpose of the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act, a common nuisance is:
- (1) a room, house, building, boat, structure or other place where marijuana items are sold, manufactured, bartered or given away in violation of state law;
- a room, house, building, boat, structure (2) or other place where persons are permitted to resort for the purpose of using marijuana items in violation of state law;
- a place where marijuana items are kept for sale, barter or gift in violation of state law; or
- all marijuana items or property subject to confiscation pursuant to the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act that are kept and used in a place described in this section.
- A person who maintains or assists in maintaining a common nuisance or who knowingly allows a common nuisance to exist in a place of which the person is the owner, manager or lessor is guilty of a violation of the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act.
- [NEW MATERIAL] LIEN ON PLACE USED TO SECTION 44. UNLAWFULLY HANDLE MARIJUANA ITEMS. -- Upon a showing that the owner of a building or premises has knowingly allowed the .204844.1

building or premises to be used or occupied for the manufacture, sale or possession of marijuana items in violation of the provisions of the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act, that building or premises is subject to a lien for and may be sold to pay all fines and costs assessed against the building's or premises' occupants for violations of that act. The district attorney of the county in which the building or premises is located shall enforce the lien immediately by civil action.

SECTION 45. [NEW MATERIAL] GOVERNOR'S AUTHORITY TO SUSPEND LICENSE.--In case of invasion, disaster, insurrection or riot or imminent danger thereof, the governor may, without notice, suspend a license that is in the affected area for the duration of the invasion, disaster, insurrection or riot or imminent danger thereof.

SECTION 46. [NEW MATERIAL] PENALTIES.--

- A. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act:
- (1) a violation of a provision of that act constitutes a misdemeanor; and
- (2) a violation of a rule promulgated pursuant to that act constitutes a petty misdemeanor.
- B. It is a misdemeanor for a person who is twentyone years of age or older to possess, produce, process, keep, store or deliver marijuana items, usable marijuana or marijuana plants in excess of the quantities or amounts provided in

An ordinance imposing the municipal cannabis tax shall not go into effect until after an election is held and the majority of the voters of the municipality voting in the election vote in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question shall be submitted to the voters of the municipality as a separate question at a regular municipal election or at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body. A special municipal election shall be called, conducted and canvassed as provided in the Municipal Election Code. If the majority of the voters voting on the question approves the ordinance imposing the municipal cannabis tax, the ordinance shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Cannabis Tax Act. question of imposing the municipal cannabis tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose the imposition of the tax for a period of one year from the date of the election.

SECTION 57. [NEW MATERIAL] COUNTY CANNABIS TAX.--

A. The majority of the members of the governing body of a county may enact an ordinance imposing an excise tax on a marijuana retailer that sells marijuana items in the county area on which the tax imposed by this section has not been paid. The tax imposed pursuant to this section may be referred to as the "county cannabis tax".

- B. The rate of the county cannabis tax is five percent and is applied to the price paid for the marijuana item. If the price paid does not represent the value of the marijuana item, the tax rate shall be applied to the reasonable value of the marijuana item at the time that the item was purchased.
- C. The governing body of a county, at the time of enacting any ordinance imposing a county cannabis tax, may dedicate the revenue for county general purposes.
- D. Any ordinance enacted under the provisions of Subsection A of this section shall include an effective date of either July 1 or January 1.
- shall not go into effect until after an election is held and the majority of the qualified electors of the county area voting in the election vote in favor of imposing the tax. The governing body shall adopt a resolution calling for an election within seventy-five days of the date that the ordinance is adopted on the question of imposing the tax. The question may be submitted to the qualified electors and voted upon as a separate question at any special election called for that purpose by the governing body. The election on the question shall be called, held, conducted and canvassed in substantially the same manner as provided by law for general elections. If the question of imposing a county cannabis tax fails, the governing body shall not again propose a county cannabis tax for a period of one year after the election.

SECTION 58. [NEW MATERIAL] DATE PAYMENT DUE.--The taxes imposed pursuant to the Cannabis Tax Act are to be paid on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurs.

SECTION 59. [NEW MATERIAL] ADMINISTRATIVE CHARGE.--The department may deduct an amount not to exceed three percent of the proceeds of the municipal cannabis tax and county cannabis tax as a charge for the administrative costs of collection, which amount shall be retained by the department for use in administration of those taxes.

SECTION 60. A new section of the Tax Administration Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] DISTRIBUTION--PUBLIC SCHOOL FUND FOR STATE

SECTION 63. Section 7-1-6.15 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1983, Chapter 211, Section 20, as amended by Laws 2015, Chapter 89, Section 1 and by Laws 2015, Chapter 100, Section 1) is amended to read:

"7-1-6.15. ADJUSTMENTS OF DISTRIBUTIONS OR TRANSFERS TO MUNICIPALITIES OR COUNTIES. --

- The provisions of this section apply to:
- (1) any distribution to a municipality pursuant to Section 7-1-6.4, 7-1-6.36 or 7-1-6.46 NMSA 1978;
- any transfer to a municipality with (2) respect to any local option gross receipts tax or municipal cannabis tax imposed by that municipality;
- any transfer to a county with respect to any local option gross receipts tax or county cannabis tax imposed by that county;
- any distribution to a county pursuant to (4) Section 7-1-6.16 or 7-1-6.47 NMSA 1978;
- (5) any distribution to a municipality or a county of gasoline taxes pursuant to Section 7-1-6.9 NMSA 1978;
- any transfer to a county with respect to (6) any tax imposed in accordance with the Local Liquor Excise Tax Act;
- any distribution to a county from the (7) county government road fund pursuant to Section 7-1-6.26 NMSA .204844.1

1978;

(8) any distribution to a municipality of gasoline taxes pursuant to Section 7-1-6.27 NMSA 1978; and

- (9) any distribution to a municipality of compensating taxes pursuant to Section 7-1-6.55 NMSA 1978.
- B. Before making a distribution or transfer specified in Subsection A of this section to a municipality or county for the month, amounts comprising the net receipts shall be segregated into two mutually exclusive categories. One category shall be for amounts relating to the current month, and the other category shall be for amounts relating to prior periods. The total of each category for a municipality or county shall be reported each month to that municipality or county. If the total of the amounts relating to prior periods is less than zero and its absolute value exceeds the greater of one hundred dollars ($100) or an amount equal to twenty percent of the average distribution or transfer amount for that municipality or county, then the following procedures shall be carried out:
- (1) all negative amounts relating to any period prior to the three calendar years preceding the year of the current month, net of any positive amounts in that same time period for the same taxpayers to which the negative amounts pertain, shall be excluded from the total relating to prior periods. Except as provided in Paragraph (2) of this subsection, the net receipts to be distributed or transferred to the municipality or county shall be adjusted to equal the amount for the current month plus the revised total for prior periods; and

- determined pursuant to Paragraph (1) of this subsection is negative and its absolute value exceeds the greater of one hundred dollars ($100) or an amount equal to twenty percent of the average distribution or transfer amount for that municipality or county, the revised total for prior periods shall be excluded from the distribution or transfers and the net receipts to be distributed or transferred to the municipality or county shall be equal to the amount for the current month.
- C. The department shall recover from a municipality or county the amount excluded by Paragraph (2) of Subsection B of this section. This amount may be referred to as the "recoverable amount".
- D. Prior to or concurrently with the distribution or transfer to the municipality or county of the adjusted net receipts, the department shall notify the municipality or county whose distribution or transfer has been adjusted pursuant to Paragraph (2) of Subsection B of this section:
- (1) that the department has made such an adjustment, that the department has determined that a specified .204844.1

- E. No earlier than ninety days from the date notice pursuant to Subsection D of this section is given, the department shall begin recovering the recoverable amount from a municipality or county as follows:
- (1) the department may collect the recoverable amount by:
- (a) decreasing distributions or transfers to the municipality or county in accordance with a repayment agreement entered into with the municipality or county; or

- (b) except as provided in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection, if the municipality or county fails to act within the ninety days, decreasing the amount of the next six distributions or transfers to the municipality or county following expiration of the ninety-day period in increments as nearly equal as practicable and sufficient to recover the amount;
- (2) if, pursuant to Subsection B of this section, the secretary determines that the recoverable amount is more than fifty percent of the average distribution or transfer of net receipts for that municipality or county, the secretary:
- (a) shall recover only up to fifty percent of the average distribution or transfer of net receipts for that municipality or county; and
- (b) may, in the secretary's discretion, waive recovery of any portion of the recoverable amount, subject to approval by the state board of finance; and
- (3) if, after application of a refund claim, audit adjustment, correction of a mistake by the department or other adjustment of a prior period, but prior to any recovery of the department pursuant to this section, the total net receipts of a municipality or county for the twelve-month period beginning with the current month are reduced or are projected to be reduced to less than fifty percent of the

An amount withheld pursuant to this subsection shall be distributed to the municipality or county upon direction of the secretary of finance and administration.

J. As used in this section:

- (1) "amounts relating to the current month" means any amounts included in the net receipts of the current month that represent payment of tax due for the current month, correction of amounts processed in the current month that relate to the current month or that otherwise relate to obligations due for the current month;
- any amounts processed during the current month that adjust amounts processed in a period or periods prior to the current month regardless of whether the adjustment is a correction of a department error or due to the filing of amended returns, payment of department-issued assessments, filing or approval of claims for refund, audit adjustments or other cause;
- (3) "average distribution or transfer amount" means the following amounts; provided that a distribution or transfer that is negative shall not be used in calculating the amounts:
- (a) the annual average of the total amount distributed or transferred to a municipality or county in each of the three twelve-month periods preceding the current month;
- (b) if a distribution or transfer to a municipality or county has been made for less than three years, the total amount distributed or transferred in the year

"controlled substance analog" means a substance other than a controlled substance that has a chemical structure substantially similar to that of a controlled substance in Schedule I, II, III, IV or V or that was specifically designed to produce effects substantially similar to that of controlled substances in Schedule I, II, III, IV or V. Examples of chemical classes in which controlled substance analogs are found include the following:
  - (1) phenethylamines;
  - (2) N-substituted piperidines;
  - (3) morphinans;
  - (4) ecgonines;
  - (5) quinazolinones;
  - (6) substituted indoles; and
  - (7) arylcycloalkylamines.

Specifically excluded from the definition of "controlled substance analog" are those substances that are generally recognized as safe and effective within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or have been manufactured, distributed or possessed in conformance with the provisions of Schedules I through V of the Controlled Substances Act or regulations adopted thereto; and

- (2) does not include industrial hemp or marijuana for the purpose of conduct that complies with the Cannabis Revenue and Freedom Act;

- F. "controlled substance analog" means a substance other than a controlled substance that has a chemical structure substantially similar to that of a controlled substance in Schedule I, II, III, IV or V or that was specifically designed to produce effects substantially similar to that of controlled substances in Schedule I, II, III, IV or V. Examples of chemical classes in which controlled substance analogs are found include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - (1) phenethylamines;
  - (2) N-substituted piperidines;
  - (3) morphinans;
  - (4) ecgonines;
  - (5) quinazolinones;
  - (6) substituted indoles; and
  - (7) arylcycloalkylamines.

Specifically excluded from the definition of "controlled substance analog" are those substances that are generally recognized as safe and effective within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or have been manufactured, distributed or possessed in conformance with the provisions of an approved new drug application or an exemption for investigational use within the meaning of Section 505 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act;

- "deliver" means the actual, constructive or attempted transfer from one person to another of a controlled substance or controlled substance analog, whether or not there is an agency relationship;
- "dispense" means to deliver a controlled substance to an ultimate user or research subject pursuant to the lawful order of a practitioner, including the administering, prescribing, packaging, labeling or compounding necessary to prepare the controlled substance for that delivery;
- I. "dispenser" means a practitioner who dispenses and includes hospitals, pharmacies and clinics where controlled substances are dispensed;
- "distribute" means to deliver other than by administering or dispensing a controlled substance or controlled substance analog;
- "drug" means substances recognized as drugs in the official United States pharmacopoeia, official homeopathic pharmacopoeia of the United States, official national formulary or any respective supplement to these publications. "Drug" does not include devices or their components, parts or accessories:
- "drug precursor" means a substance, material, L. .204844.1

compound, mixture or preparation listed in Section 30-31B-3

NMSA 1978 or regulations adopted thereto or any of their salts or isomers. "Drug precursor" specifically excludes those substances, materials, compounds, mixtures or preparations that are prepared for dispensing pursuant to a prescription or overthe-counter distribution as a substance that is generally recognized as safe and effective within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or have been manufactured, distributed or possessed in conformance with the provisions of an approved new drug application or an exemption for investigational use within the meaning of Section 505 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, unless the board makes the findings required pursuant to Subsection B of Section 30-31B-4 NMSA 1978;

- M. "immediate precursor" means a substance that is a compound commonly used or produced primarily as an immediate chemical intermediary used in the manufacture of a controlled substance, the control of which is necessary to prevent, curtail or limit the manufacture of controlled substances;
- N. "license" means a license issued by the board to manufacture, possess, transfer or transport a drug precursor;
- O. "manufacture" means the production, preparation, compounding, conversion or processing of a drug precursor by extraction from substances of natural origin, independently by means of chemical synthesis or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis and includes any packaging or repackaging of the substance or labeling or relabeling of its container, except that this term does not include the preparation or compounding of a controlled substance by a practitioner:

- (1) as an incident to the practitioner's administering or dispensing of a controlled substance in the course of professional practice; or
- (2) by the practitioner's agent under the practitioner's supervision for the purpose of or as an incident to research, teaching or chemical analysis and not for sale;
- P. "person" includes an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, association, the state or a political subdivision of the state or other legal entity;
- Q. "possession" means to actively or constructively exercise dominion over;
- R. "practitioner" means a physician, certified advanced practice chiropractic physician, dentist, veterinarian or other person licensed to prescribe and administer drugs that are subject to the Controlled Substances Act;
- S. "prescription" means an order given individually for the person for whom is prescribed a controlled substance, either directly from the prescriber to the pharmacist or indirectly by means of a written order signed by the prescriber .204844.1

and	in	acco	rdance	with	the	Controlled	Substances	Act	or
