SENATE MEMORIAL 4

54TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2020

INTRODUCED BY

Nancy Rodriguez

A MEMORIAL

RECOGNIZING THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS; PROCLAIMING FEBRUARY 6, 2020 "LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS DAY" IN THE SENATE.

WHEREAS, the league of women voters was founded on February 14, 1920, six months before the nineteenth amendment to the United States constitution was ratified; and

WHEREAS, the nineteenth amendment to the United States constitution established women's right to vote; and

WHEREAS, the league of women voters grew out of the suffrage and equal rights movements that started in 1848; and

WHEREAS, the original purpose of the league of women voters was to educate the twenty-seven million newly enfranchised women about their civic responsibilities as voters and to promote their understanding of government; and

1           WHEREAS, the league of women voters continues its mission 2 to promote understanding of major policy issues through its 3 educational efforts; and

4           WHEREAS, the league of women voters continues to influence 5 public policy through education and advocacy; and

6           WHEREAS, the league of women voters is a nonpartisan
7 political organization that encourages informed and active 8 participation in government to strengthen democracy; and

9           WHEREAS, the league of women voters formulates its 10 positions on political issues after careful research,
11 reflecting consensus on sound policy decision-making 12 principles; and

13           WHEREAS, advocacy efforts have resulted in improvements
14 to education, health care, human rights, natural resource 15 stewardship, election reform, ethics and campaign finance 16 regulation; and

17           WHEREAS, efforts to advance accountability and increase 18 transparency have resulted in legislative action and 19 improvements in state and local governments; and

20           WHEREAS, the league of women voters' motto states that 21 "democracy is not a spectator sport" because civic involvement 22 creates more responsive and responsible government; and

23           WHEREAS, the league of women voters has encouraged 24 millions of voters to carry out their responsibilities by 25 publishing voter guides and conducting forums and debates that
