11 RELATING TO DOMESTIC AFFAIRS; AMENDING A SECTION OF CHAPTER 40, 12 ARTICLE 4 NMSA 1978 TO PROVIDE FOR A PRESUMPTION OF EQUAL TIME-13 SHARING BETWEEN PARENTS IN CUSTODY DETERMINATIONS.

14
15 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

16 SECTION 1. Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1986, 17 Chapter 41, Section 1, as amended) is amended to read:

18 "40-4-9.1. JOINT CUSTODY--STANDARDS FOR DETERMINATION--
19 PARENTING PLAN.--

20 A. There shall be a presumption that joint custody 21 with equal time-sharing is in the best interests of a child in 22 an initial custody determination. [~~An award of joint custody~~
23 ~~does not imply an equal division of financial responsibility~~
24 ~~for the child.~~] Joint custody shall not be awarded as a 25 substitute for an existing custody arrangement unless there has

1 been a substantial and material change in circumstances since 2 the entry of the prior custody order or decree, which change 3 affects the welfare of the child such that joint custody is 4 presently in the best interests of the child. If the court has 5 previously entered an order determining joint legal custody but 6 has not awarded equal physical custody of the child, and there 7 has been no specific finding that joint custody is not in the 8 child's best interest pursuant to the factors set forth in this 9 section, the court shall set a hearing in a timely manner on 10 the motion to determine whether the parties shall have equal 11 legal and physical joint custody. In determining joint 12 physical custody, it shall be presumed that joint physical 13 custody means equal time-sharing. The court may make a 14 determination for equal joint legal and physical custody on 15 these matters without making a finding that there has been a 16 substantial change of family circumstances. With respect to 17 any proceeding in which it is proposed that joint custody be 18 terminated, the court shall not terminate joint custody unless 19 there has been a substantial and material change in 20 circumstances affecting the welfare of the child, since entry
21 of the joint custody order, such that joint custody is no 22 longer in the best interests of the child.

23 B. In determining whether a joint custody order is 24 in the best interests of the child, in addition to the factors 25 provided in Section 40-4-9 NMSA 1978, the court shall consider

.219043.1

1 the following factors:

2 (1) whether the child has established a close
3 relationship with each parent;

4 (2) whether each parent is capable of 5 providing adequate care for the child throughout each period of 6 responsibility, including arranging for the child's care by 7 others as needed;

8 (3) whether each parent is willing to accept 9 all responsibilities of parenting, including a willingness to 10 accept care of the child at specified times and to relinquish 11 care to the other parent at specified times;

12 (4) whether the child can best maintain and 13 strengthen a relationship with both parents through 14 predictable, frequent contact and whether the child's 15 development will profit from such involvement and influence 16 from both parents;

17 (5) whether each parent is able to allow the 18 other to provide care without intrusion, that is, to respect 19 the other's parental rights and responsibilities and right to 20 privacy;

21 (6) the suitability of a parenting plan for 22 the implementation of joint custody, preferably, although not 23 necessarily, one arrived at through parental agreement;

24 (7) geographic distance between the parents'
25 residences;

1 (8) willingness or ability of the parents to 2 communicate, cooperate or agree on issues regarding the child's 3 needs; and

4 (9) whether a ~~[judicial adjudication has been~~ 5 ~~made in a prior or the present proceeding that either parent or~~ 6 ~~other person seeking custody has engaged in one or more acts of~~ 7 ~~domestic abuse]~~ conviction for domestic violence against the 8 child, a parent of the child or other household member [~~if a~~
9 ~~determination is made that domestic abuse has occurred]~~ exists 10 or whether a charge for domestic violence is pending, in which 11 case the court shall set forth findings that the custody or 12 visitation ordered by the court adequately protects the child, 13 the abused parent or other household member.

14 C. In any proceeding in which the custody of a 15 child is at issue, the court shall not prefer one parent as a 16 custodian solely because of gender.

17 D. The court shall allocate parenting time pursuant 18 to joint custody according to the child's best interests. In 19 allocating parenting time, the court shall presume that it is 20 in the child's best interests to award equal time to each 21 parent and that:

22 (1) the child has a right to a strong and 23 healthy relationship with the child's parents;

24 (2) the child's parents have a right and 25 responsibility to create and maintain a strong and healthy

.219043.1

1 relationship with the child; and

2 (3) in the absence of domestic violence or any 3 other factor that the court expressly finds to be relevant, 4 proximity to and frequent contact with both parents promotes 5 the child's healthy development.

6 E. In a child custody proceeding, the court shall:

7 (1) facilitate parental planning and agreement
8 about the child's upbringing and allocation of parenting time 9 and other parental responsibilities;

10 (2) continue existing parent-child
11 relationships;

12 (3) secure the maximum involvement and 13 cooperation of parents regarding the physical, mental, moral,
14 and emotional well-being of the child during and after a court 15 proceeding;

16 (4) encourage or order the child's parents to 17 participate in programs designed to educate parents to:

18 (a) minimize or eliminate rancor and the 19 detrimental effect of litigation in any proceeding involving 20 children; and

21 (b) facilitate the maximum cooperation 22 of parents in raising their children; and 23 (5) presume that, in order to maximize the 24 opportunity for the child to maintain and strengthen the 25 child's relationship with each parent, the involvement of both

1 parents for an equal amount of time is in the best interests of 2 the child.

3 ~~[D.]~~ F. In any case in which the parents agree to a 4 form of custody, the court should award custody consistent with 5 the agreement unless the court determines that such agreement 6 is not in the best interests of the child.

7 ~~[E.]~~ G. In making an order of joint custody, the 8 court may specify the circumstances, if any, under which the 9 consent of both legal custodians is required to be obtained in 10 order to exercise legal control of the child and the 11 consequences of the failure to obtain mutual consent.

12 ~~[F.]~~ H. When joint custody is awarded, the court 13 shall approve a parenting plan for the implementation of the 14 prospective custody arrangement prior to the award of joint 15 custody. The parenting plan shall include a division of a 16 child's time and care into periods of responsibility for each 17 parent. It may also include:

18 (1) statements regarding the child's religion, 19 education, child care, recreational activities and medical and 20 dental care;

21 (2) designation of specific decision-making
22 responsibilities;

23 (3) methods of communicating information about 24 the child, transporting the child, exchanging care for the 25 child and maintaining telephone and mail contact between parent

1 and child;

2 (4) procedures for future [~~decision-making~~]
3 decision making, including procedures for dispute resolution; 4 and

5 (5) other statements regarding the welfare of 6 the child or designed to clarify and facilitate parenting under 7 joint custody arrangements.

8 In a case where joint custody is not agreed to or 9 necessary aspects of the parenting plan are contested, the 10 parties shall each submit parenting plans. The court may 11 accept the plan proposed by either party or it may combine or 12 revise these plans as it deems necessary in the child's best 13 interests. The time of filing of parenting plans shall be set 14 by local rule. A plan adopted by the court shall be entered as 15 an order of the court.

16 [~~G.~~] I. Where custody is contested, the court shall 17 refer that issue to mediation if feasible. The court may also 18 use auxiliary services such as professional evaluation by 19 application of Rule 706 of the New Mexico Rules of Evidence or 20 Rule 53 of the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District
21 Courts.

22 [~~H.~~] J. Notwithstanding any other provisions of 23 law, access to records and information pertaining to a minor 24 child, including medical, dental and school records, shall not 25 be denied to a parent because that parent is not the child's

1 physical custodial parent or because that parent is not a joint 2 custodial parent.

3 ~~[F.]~~ K. Whenever a request for joint custody is 4 granted or denied, the court shall state in its decision its 5 basis for granting or denying the request for joint custody. A 6 statement that joint custody is or is not in the best interests 7 of the child is not sufficient to meet the requirements of this 8 subsection.

9 ~~[J.]~~ L. An award of joint custody means that:

10 (1) each parent shall have significant, well-
11 defined periods of responsibility for the child;

12 (2) each parent shall have, and be allowed and 13 expected to carry out, responsibility for the child's 14 financial, physical, emotional and developmental needs during 15 that parent's periods of responsibility;

16 (3) the parents shall consult with each other 17 on major decisions involving the child before implementing 18 those decisions; that is, neither parent shall make a decision 19 or take an action ~~[which]~~ that results in a major change in a 20 child's life until the matter has been discussed with the other 21 parent and the parents agree. If the parents, after 22 discussion, cannot agree and if one parent wishes to effect a 23 major change while the other does not wish the major change to 24 occur, then no change shall occur until the issue has been 25 resolved as provided in this subsection;

1 (4) the following guidelines apply to major
2 changes in a child's life:

3 (a) if either parent plans to change
4 [~~his~~] the parent's home city or state of residence, [~~he~~] that 5 parent shall provide to the other parent thirty days' notice in 6 writing stating the date and destination of move;

7 (b) the religious denomination and 8 religious activities, or lack thereof, [~~which~~] that were being 9 practiced during the marriage should not be changed unless the 10 parties agree or it has been otherwise resolved as provided in 11 this subsection;

12 (c) both parents shall have access to 13 school records, teachers and activities. The type of 14 education, public or private, [~~which~~] that was in place during 15 the marriage should continue, whenever possible, and school
16 districts should not be changed unless the parties agree or it 17 has been otherwise resolved as provided in this subsection;

18 (d) both parents shall have access to 19 medical and dental treatment providers and records. Each 20 parent has authority to make emergency medical decisions.
21 Neither parent may contract for major elective medical or 22 dental treatment unless both parents agree or it has been 23 otherwise resolved as provided in this subsection; and 24 (e) both parents may attend the child's 25 public activities and both parents should know the necessary

.219043.1

1 schedules. Whatever recreational activities the child 2 participated in during the marriage should continue with the 3 child's agreement, regardless of which of the parents has 4 physical custody. Also, neither parent may enroll the child in 5 a new recreational activity unless the parties agree or it has 6 been otherwise resolved as provided in this subsection; and

7 (5) decisions regarding major changes in a 8 child's life may be decided by:

9 (a) agreement between the joint 10 custodial parents;

11 (b) requiring that the parents seek 12 family counseling, conciliation or mediation service to assist 13 in resolving their differences;

14 (c) agreement by the parents to submit 15 the dispute to binding arbitration;

16 (d) allocating ultimate responsibility
17 for a particular major decision area to one legal custodian;

18 (e) terminating joint custody and 19 awarding sole custody to one person;

20 (f) reference to a master pursuant to
21 Rule 53 of the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District
22 Courts; or

23 (g) the district court.

24 ~~[K.]~~ M. When ~~[any]~~ a person other than a natural or 25 adoptive parent seeks custody of a child, no such person shall

1 be awarded custody absent a showing of unfitness of the natural 2 or adoptive parent.

3 ~~[E.]~~ N. As used in this section:

4 (1) "child" means a person under the age of 5 eighteen;

6 (2) "custody" means the authority and 7 responsibility to make major decisions in a child's best 8 interests in the areas of residence, medical and dental 9 treatment, education or child care, religion and recreation;

10 (3) "domestic abuse" means any incident by a 11 household member against another household member resulting in:

- 12 (a) physical harm;
- 13 (b) severe emotional distress;
- 14 (c) a threat causing imminent fear of
- 15 physical harm by any household member;
- 16 (d) criminal trespass;
- 17 (e) criminal damage to property;

- 20 (g) harassment, as provided in Section
- 21 30-3A-2 NMSA 1978;

22 (4) "joint custody" means an order of the 23 court awarding custody of a child to two parents ~~[Joint custody~~ 24 ~~does not imply an equal division of the child's time between~~ 25 ~~the parents or an equal division of financial responsibility~~

1 ~~for the child~~];

2 (5) "parent" means a natural parent, adoptive
3 parent or person who is acting as a parent who has or shares
4 legal custody of a child or who claims a right to have or share 5 legal custody;

6 (6) "parenting plan" means a document
7 submitted for approval of the court setting forth the 8 responsibilities of each parent individually and the parents 9 jointly in a joint custody arrangement;

11 specified period of time during which a parent is responsible 12 for providing for a child's physical, developmental and 13 emotional needs, including the ~~[decision-making]~~ decision 14 making required in daily living. Specified periods of 15 responsibility shall not be changed in an instance or more 16 permanently except by the methods of ~~[decision-making]~~ decision 17 making described under Subsection L of this section;

18 (8) "sole custody" means an order of the court 19 awarding custody of a child to one parent; and

20 (9) "visitation" means a period of time
21 available to a noncustodial parent, under a sole custody 22 arrangement, during which a child resides with or is under the 23 care and control of the noncustodial parent."
