STUDENTS--CREATION--CONTENTS--ADVISORY GROUP.--

A. The department, in collaboration with the legislative finance committee and the legislative education study committee, shall develop and maintain a web-based resource tool that provides resources for at-risk students.

B. The web-based resource tool for at-risk students may contain the following:

(1) information on educational programs focused on the needs of at-risk students;

(2) modules, interventions and educational approaches conducive to the educational needs of at-risk students; and

(3) information on points of contact for local and regional educational experts.

C. The department shall convene an advisory group of stakeholders who represent educational organizations statewide who serve at-risk students to work in collaboration with the department to provide recommendations to develop the content for the web-based resource tool for at-risk students.

D. The stakeholders in the advisory group may choose to serve as local and regional points of contact for any recommendations for educational services for at-risk students or any updates to the web-based resource tool for at-risk students.

E. The department shall host the web-based resource
