SECTION III: NARRATIVE

BILL SUMMARY

Synopsis: SM 9 requests the Crime Victims Reparation Commission to convene a statewide gun violence prevention task force to study the issue of gun violence in New Mexico and to make recommendations for addressing the issue. The statewide gun violence prevention task force shall be composed of representatives of the crime victims reparation commission, the public education department, the higher department, the department of public safety, the department of health, the health care authority department, the children, youth and families department, the department of game and fish, the university of New Mexico, Indian nations, tribes, and pueblos of New Mexico, pueblo law enforcement and federal and local law enforcement agencies, gun advocates, and distributors and anti-domestic violence and sexual assault groups.

WHAT WILL BE THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT ENACTING THIS BILL

New Mexico is already facing the consequences of gun violence (increased violence and death). Passing and signing this memorial to convene a task force to study these issues may help to reduce those figures. If the task force is not convened this could lead to missed opportunities for impacting the level of gun violence and the collateral costs associated with gun violence.
