that represent intercompany transactions between members of the filing group;

C. "base income" means the federal taxable income or the federal net operating loss of a corporation for the taxable year calculated pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, after special deductions provided in Sections 241 through 249 of the Internal Revenue Code but without any deduction for net operating losses, as if the corporation filed a federal tax return as a separate domestic entity, modified as follows:

(1) adding to that income:

(a) interest received on a state or local bond exempt under the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) the amount of any deduction claimed in calculating taxable income for all expenses and costs directly or indirectly paid, accrued or incurred to a captive real estate investment trust;

(c) the amount of any deduction, other than for premiums, for amounts paid directly or indirectly to a commonly controlled entity that is exempt from corporate income tax pursuant to Section 7-2A-4 NMSA 1978; ~~[and]~~

(d) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2023, an amount equal to the amount of credit claimed and allowed for that year pursuant to Section 7-3A-10 NMSA 1978 with respect to the distributed net income of a pass-through entity;

.233921.5AIC February 16, 2026 (9:18am)

(e) the amount of any deduction taken pursuant to Sections 168(k) and 168(n) of the Internal Revenue Code in excess of the deduction amount that would have been allowed by Sections 168(a) through 168(j) of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(f) the amount of additional interest deducted as a result of the changes to Subparagraph (A) of Section 163(j)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 70303 of Public Law 119-21; provided that such interest shall be eligible for the carryforward provisions of Section 163(j)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(2) subtracting from that income:

(a) income from obligations of the United States net of expenses incurred to earn that income; and

(b) other amounts that the state is prohibited from taxing because of the laws or constitution of this state or the United States net of any related expenses; [and

~~(c) an amount equal to one hundred percent of the income of the corporation under Section 951A of the Internal Revenue Code, less the amount deducted pursuant to Section 250 of the Internal Revenue Code;]~~

(3) making other adjustments deemed necessary to properly reflect income of the unitary group, including attribution of income or expense related to unitary assets held of the country in which the corporations are incorporated or conduct business activity."

SECTION 2. Section 7-4-10 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1993, Chapter 153, Section 1, as amended) is amended to read:

"7-4-10. APPORTIONMENT OF BUSINESS INCOME.--

A. Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this section, all business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor and the denominator of which is three. The apportionment calculation shall include the factors of a controlled foreign corporation to the extent the income of the corporation is included in net income.

B. If eighty percent or more of the New Mexico numerators of the property and payroll factors for a filing group, or for a taxpayer that is not a member of a filing group, are employed in manufacturing or operating a computer processing facility, the filing group or the taxpayer may elect to have business income apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by the sales factor for the taxable year.

C. If a filing group, or a taxpayer that is not a member of a filing group, has a headquarters operation in New Mexico, the filing group or the taxpayer may elect to have business income apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by the sales factor for the taxable year.

D. To elect the method of apportionment provided by Subsection B or C of this section, the taxpayer shall notify the department of the election, in writing, no later than the date on which the taxpayer files the return for the first taxable year to which the election will apply. The election shall apply as follows:

(1) if the election is made for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 2020, to the taxable year in which the election is made and to each taxable year thereafter for three years, or until the taxable year ending prior to January 1, 2020, whichever is earlier;

(2) if the election is made for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2020, to the taxable year in which the election is made and to each taxable year thereafter until the taxpayer notifies the department, in writing, that the election is terminated, except that the taxpayer shall not terminate the election until the method of apportioning business income provided by Subsection B or C of this section has been used by the taxpayer for at least three consecutive taxable years, including a total of at least thirty-six calendar months; and

(3) if the election is made by a qualifying filing group, the election shall apply to the members of the filing group properly included pursuant to Section 7-2A-8.3

professional services."

SECTION 3. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] LOCAL JOURNALIST EMPLOYMENT INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years prior to January 1, 2031, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual and is an owner of a local news organization that employs a journalist may claim a credit against the taxpayer's tax liability imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act in an amount provided in Subsection B of this section. The tax credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "local journalist employment income tax credit".

B. The amount of tax credit shall be in an amount equal to thirty percent of wages paid to each journalist employed by a local news organization.

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility for the tax credit from the department on forms and in the manner prescribed by the department no later than one year following the end of the calendar year in which the wages were paid. A taxpayer shall not be eligible to receive a tax credit for more than seventy-five journalists whom the taxpayer employs as a local news organization and, except as provided in Subsections F and G of this section, only one tax credit shall be certified for each journalist employed by a local news organization per taxable year. The total annual aggregate amount of local journalist employment income tax credits and local journalist employment corporate income tax credits that may be certified in a calendar year shall not exceed four million dollars ($4,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received.

D. If the department determines that the taxpayer meets the requirements of this section, the department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility to the taxpayer providing the amount of tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable years in which the credit may be claimed.

E. That portion of tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's income tax liability in the taxable year in which the credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

F. Married individuals filing separate returns for a taxable year for which they could have filed a joint return may each claim only one-half of the tax credit that would have been claimed on a joint return.

G. A taxpayer may be allocated the right to claim the tax credit in proportion to the taxpayer's ownership interest if the taxpayer owns an interest in a business entity that is taxed for federal income tax purposes as a partnership or limited liability company and the business entity has met all requirements to be eligible for the credit. The total credit claimed by all members of the partnership or limited liability company shall not exceed the allowable credit pursuant to this section.

H. A taxpayer allowed to claim a tax credit pursuant to this section shall claim the tax credit in a manner required by the department.

I. The tax credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the total annual aggregate cost of the tax credit.

J. As used in this section:

(1) "journalist" means a person who:

(a) is paid by a local news organization to regularly gather, prepare, collect, photograph, record, direct the recording of, produce, write, edit, report or publish news or information that concerns state or local events or other matters of public interest for dissemination to the state or a local community through reporting activities, including conducting interviews, observing current events or analyzing documents;

(b) resides within fifty miles of the coverage area assigned by the local news organization; and

SECTION 8. A new section of the Income Tax Act is enacted to read:

"[NEW MATERIAL] LOCAL NEWS PRINTER INCOME TAX CREDIT.--

A. For taxable years prior to January 1, 2031, a taxpayer who is not a dependent of another individual and is an owner of a local news printer that employs a qualified employee may claim a credit against the taxpayer's tax liability imposed pursuant to the Income Tax Act in an amount provided in Subsection B of this section. The tax credit provided by this section may be referred to as the "local news printer income tax credit".

B. The amount of tax credit shall be in an amount equal to the wages paid to each qualified employee employed by a local news printer in the taxable year for which the tax credit is claimed, not to exceed:

(1) ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a qualified employee working an average of twenty hours or more per week in the taxable year; and

(2) five thousand dollars ($5,000) for a qualified employee working an average of less than twenty hours per week in the taxable year.

C. A taxpayer shall apply for certification of eligibility for the tax credit from the department on forms and in the manner prescribed by the department no later than one year following the end of the calendar year in which the wages were paid. A taxpayer shall not be eligible to receive a tax credit for more than one hundred qualified employees whom the taxpayer employs as a local news printer and, except as provided in Subsections F and G of this section, only one tax credit shall be certified for each qualified employee employed by a local news printer per taxable year. The total annual aggregate amount of local news printer income tax credits and local news printer corporate income tax credits that may be certified in a calendar year shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000). Completed applications shall be considered in the order received.

D. If the department determines that the taxpayer meets the requirements of this section, the department shall issue a dated certificate of eligibility to the taxpayer providing the amount of tax credit for which the taxpayer is eligible and the taxable years in which the credit may be claimed.

E. That portion of tax credit that exceeds a taxpayer's income tax liability in the taxable year in which the credit is claimed shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

G. A taxpayer may be allocated the right to claim the tax credit in proportion to the taxpayer's ownership interest if the taxpayer owns an interest in a business entity that is taxed for federal income tax purposes as a partnership or limited liability company and the business entity has met all requirements to be eligible for the credit. The total credit claimed by all members of the partnership or limited liability company shall not exceed the allowable credit pursuant to this section.

H. A taxpayer allowed to claim a tax credit pursuant to this section shall claim the tax credit in a manner required by the department.

I. The credit provided by this section shall be included in the tax expenditure budget pursuant to Section 7-1-84 NMSA 1978, including the total annual aggregate cost of the credit.

J. As used in this section:

(1) "local news organization" means an entity that:

(a) provides a print or digital publication that engages professionals who regularly gather, prepare, collect, photograph, record, direct the recording of, produce, write, edit, report or publish news or information
