Section 5. [NEW MATERIAL] COLLEGE INVESTMENT AGREEMENT. --

A. An investor may enter into a college investment agreement with the board under which the investor agrees to make investments into the fund from time to time for the purpose of defraying the costs of attendance billed by institutions of higher education. An investor may enter into a college investment agreement on behalf of any beneficiary under the age of eighteen. The board shall adopt a form of the college investment agreement to be used by the board and investors.

B. The beneficiary under a college investment agreement must be younger than eighteen years of age at the time the investor enters into the agreement and must be:

(1) a resident of this state at the time the investor enters into the agreement; or

(2) a nonresident who is the child of a parent who is a resident of this state at the time that parent enters into the agreement.

C. The board shall provide for the direct payment of principal, investment earnings and capital appreciation accrued pursuant to a college investment agreement to the institution of higher education that the beneficiary actually attends.

D. The board may require a reasonable period of residence in this state, together with other related criteria, for a beneficiary or an investor. A beneficiary is considered a resident for purposes of tuition regardless of the beneficiary's residence on the date of enrollment.

E. The college investment agreement may be terminated by the investor at any time. The investor may modify the college investment agreement to designate a new beneficiary or beneficiaries instead of the original beneficiary if the new beneficiary or beneficiaries meet the requirements of the original beneficiary on the date the designation is changed and if the original beneficiary:

(1) di es;

(2) is not admitted to the institution ofhigher education following proper application;

15 (3) elects not to attend the institution of 16 higher education or, if attending, elects to discontinue higher 17 education; or

(4) for any other circumstance approved by the board, does not exercise his rights under the college investment agreement.

F. If the college investment agreement is terminated pursuant to the provisions of this section, the board shall refund to the investor, to any person designated by the investor pursuant to the agreement or to the legal representative of the investor, an amount equal to all the principal contributed or paid in by the investor plus interest not to exceed four percent annually. The balance of the accrued investment earnings and capital appreciation less administrative costs shall be credited to the fund.

G. The board shall establish a refund policy if a beneficiary receives additional student financial aid.

H. A college investment agreement terminates on the tenth anniversary of the date the beneficiary is projected to graduate from high school, not counting time spent by the beneficiary as an active-duty member of the United States armed services.

I. Gifts and bequests to the fund may be made in the name of a specific beneficiary or in the name of the fund in general. Gifts and bequests given for the benefit of a specific beneficiary shall be credited to that beneficiary, and gifts and bequests given to the fund in general shall be credited equally to each beneficiary of a college investment agreement.

J. Principal paid into the fund, together with accrued investment earnings and capital appreciation, shall be excluded from any calculation of a beneficiary's state student financial aid eligibility.

K. The board shall annually notify each investor of the balance of his college savings agreement principal, accrued investment earnings and capital appreciation.
