Hunger Facts

New Mexico is number one in the country for child food insecurity.

23% of Lea County's children are food insecure.

Of these children, 29% do not qualify for the school food program.

Of households with children, nearly 60% report utilizing the school lunch/breakfast program, but the households they live in still require additional help with food assistance.

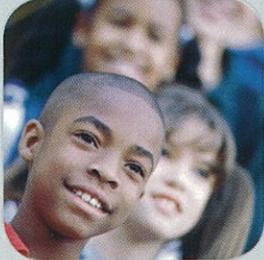

44% of households with children report their family was not eating enough because they could not afford food.

A USDA study indicates that under-nutrition experienced by children during periods of growth impacts their behavior, their school performance, and their overall cognitive development.

"Compassion is our greatest defense."
