GED™ Testing Update

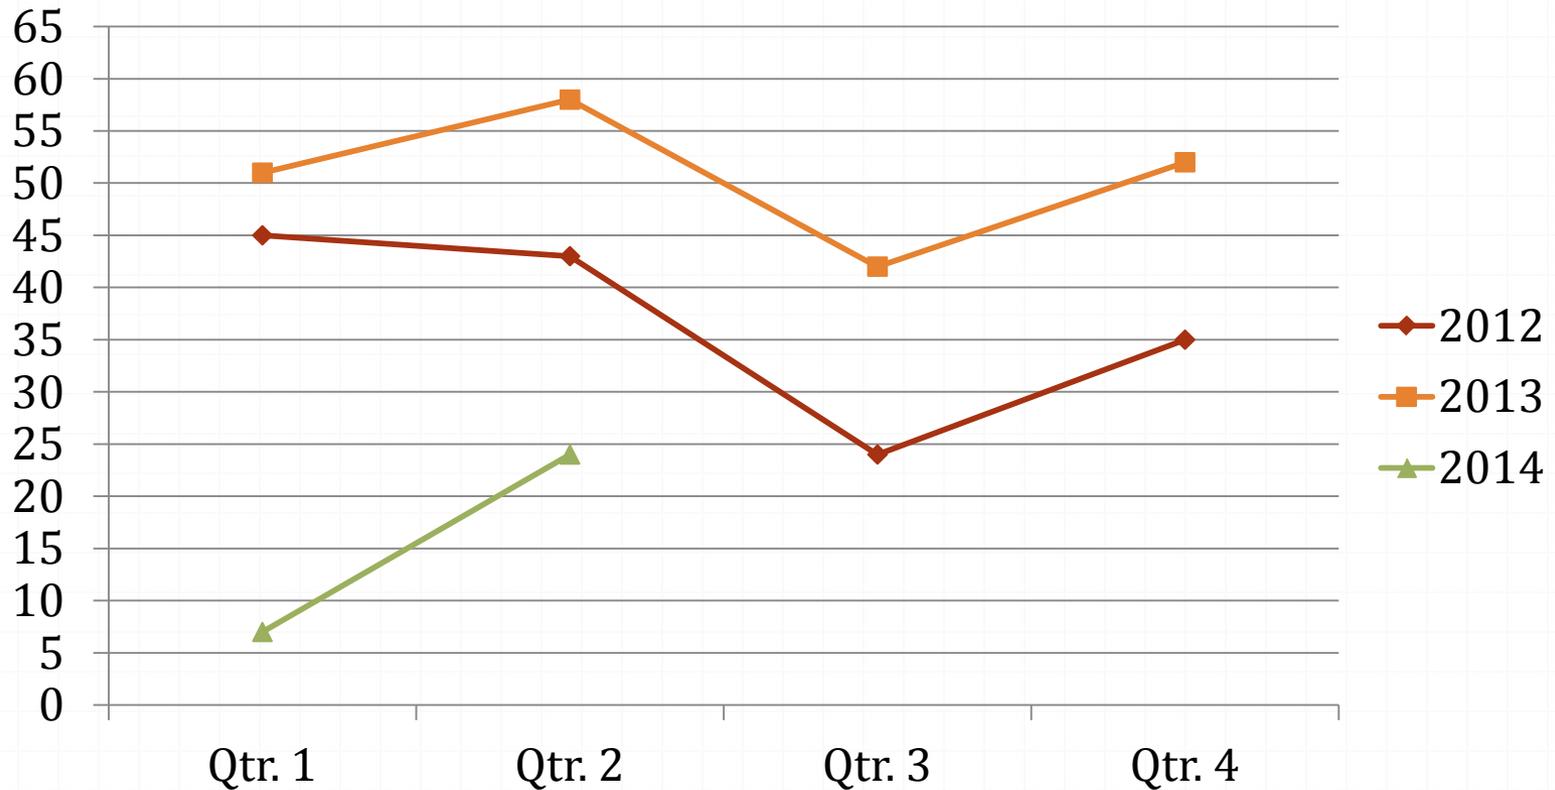

New Mexico Junior College

LESC Meeting – Sept. 22, 2014

NMJC GED™ Testing

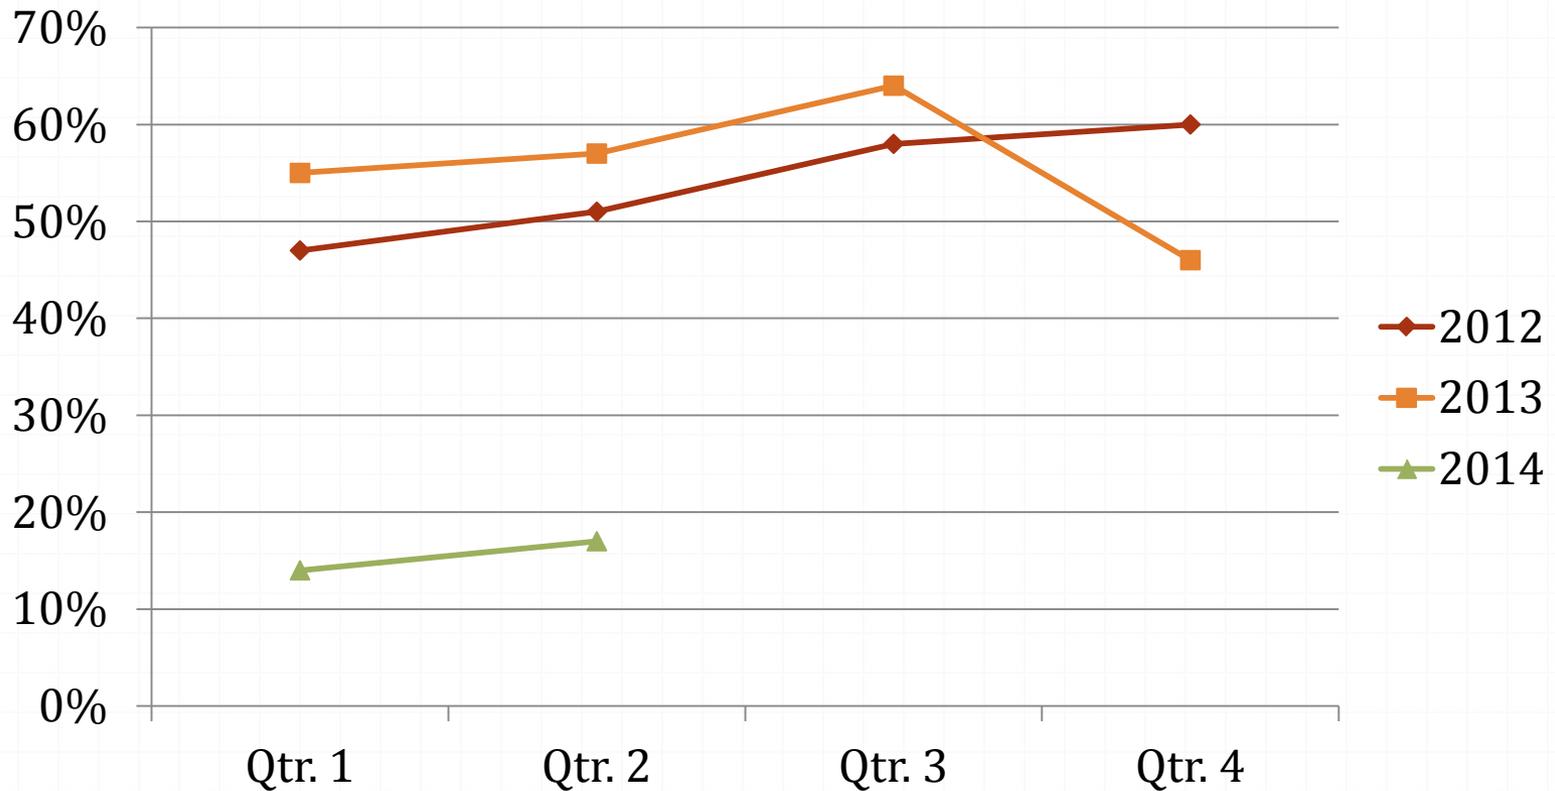

- o New Mexico Junior College became a Pearson-Vue Testing site in January 2014.
- o Seventy-two percent (72%) decline in the number of students testing from 2013 to 2014.
- o Ninety-two percent (92%) decline in the number of students passing the 2014 GED compared to same time frame in 2013.
- o Adult Education programs are adjusting curriculum, testing materials and increasing requirements in an effort to combat the low pass rate.
