

Allied Health Certificate and Degree Programs at Luna Community College

Presentation to the Legislative Health and Human Services Committee

August 6, 2021

Edward A. Martinez, Ph.D.

President, Luna Community College

Allied Health Certificate Programs

- Allied Health Certificate
 - 30 credit hour (2-semester) program
 - facilitate admission into a Nursing program or employment in healthcare
- Dental Assistant Certificate
 - 36 credit hour (1-year) program
 - Commission on Dental Accreditation
- Emergency Medical Technician-Basic
 - 11 credit hour program
 - prepares individuals to sit for National Registry EMT certification exam

Continuing Education Programs

- Certified Nurses Assistant (CNA)
 - One week of theory class (8am-5pm)
 - One week of clinicals (8am-5pm)
 - Course provides basic knowledge and skills necessary by nursing assistants to deliver safe and effective care
- CPR
 - 1 credit hour course (about 40+ contact hours)
 - Offered in varying schedule formats
 - Required course for other allied health programs as well as a continuing education course for health care professionals in the field

Allied Health AAS Programs

- Allied Health
 - 60 credit hours (2-year) program
 - purpose is to prepare students to either transfer into an allied health career program or to a pre-professional program at a four year college
- Nursing (Registered Nurse)
 - 68 credit hours
 - Prepares students for board licensure