

Lorenzo Alba, Jr. is the Executive Director of Casa de Peregrinos Emergency Food Program in Las Cruces and Doña Ana County and has been since 2011. He was the former publisher and editor of the Lordsburg Liberal (newspaper Gannett/MediaNews Group) in his hometown of Lordsburg, NM. His education comes from Lordsburg High School, the University of New Mexico and The Art Institute of Dallas. He was awarded the J. Paul Taylor Community Social Justice Award in 2017 and NMSU College of Arts and Sciences Outstanding Community Partner in 2018. He has served in various leadership roles in the community including as President of the Mesilla Valley Rotary Club, Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus of the Basilica de San Albino, current vice-chair of the Dona Ana County Emergency Food and Shelter Program, past Vice-Chair of the Las Cruces Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, current Executive Board member of Mesilla Valley Economic Development Alliance, Leadership Las Cruces alumni (2012), former Executive Director of the storied Las Cruces PAL Program and Sammy Burke Boxing Club and is currently serving as Chair of the Las Cruces Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.