

TENTATIVE AGENDA
Los Alamos National Laboratory Oversight Committee
November 12, 2004
Room 322, State Capitol

9:30 a.m. Call to Order
Roll Call
Approval of Minutes

9:35 a.m. LANL Education Initiatives
> Student Education Program Overview — Dave Foster, acting manager, education program office
> New Mexico University Partnerships — Dr. Don Rej, acting director, science and technology base program office
> Math and Science Academy — Carol Brown, master teacher
> Student Experience — student participants in LANL programs

12:00 p.m. LUNCH

1:30 p.m. Education Roundtable Discussion — What do the national laboratories need from the New Mexico work force? What do secondary & post-secondary schools need to do to ensure qualified applicants for high-paying lab careers? What do schools need from the state to produce an adequately trained work force?

LANL — Gilbert Ratliff, acting leader, staffing group, and Dr. Rae Lee Siporin, UC special asst for education relations

Sandia — Tom Daly, advanced technology academy and photonics academy director, and Dr. Art Guenther, UNM center for high technology materials

PED — Dr. Patricia Parkinson, school support division

CHE — Guy Jacobus, senior program manager

NNMCC — Dr. Sigfredo Maestas, president

Highlands University — Manny Aragon, president, and Dr. Clarence Sanchez, vice president

UNM — Dr. John McIver, deputy vice president for research

Espanola School District — Victoria Garcia, staff development specialist, ESL

Santa Fe School District — Carolann Gutierrez, literacy specialist

Los Alamos School District — Dr. Mary McLeod, curriculum coordinator

Pojoaque School District — Gloria Shuttler, Pojoaque high school principal

UNM Los Alamos — Dr. Carlos Ramirez, director

Office of Work Force Training & Development — Reese Fullerton, director

Association of Community Colleges — Jack Jekowski, business advisory board chairman

3:30 p.m. Executive Session