Instructions

An explanation of each approach will be described by Mark during the session. The goal of this worksheet is to distribute each sector's job number into the three different Economic Development Program Approaches. Eventually, this will help us define gaps in current economic development efforts and find those areas where the legislature can distribute money to fill this gap to reach the 162,000 economic base job goal. Across each individual sector, columns 1, 2, and 3
