Several sources of authority govern the conduct of legislators: the Constitution of New Mexico, statutes, the rules of the house and senate and advisory opinions from the various ethics committees. This guide captures the essence of the law, rule or opinion cited as it applies to legislators. Members are strongly urged to consult the specific law, rule or opinion.

All legislators should become familiar with the following acts, which appear in full in the Appendix section of this guide.

Governmental Conduct Act

(Chapter 10, Article 16 NMSA 1978)

Lobbyist Regulation Act

(Chapter 2, Article 11 NMSA 1978)

Campaign Reporting Act

(Sections 1-19-25 through 1-19-36 NMSA 1978)

Financial Disclosure Act

(Chapter 10, Article 16A NMSA 1978)

Gift Act

(Chapter 10, Article 16B NMSA 1978)

State Ethics Commission Act

(Chapter 10, Article 16G NMSA 1978)

Legislators who do business with the state should also pay particular attention to the Procurement Code (Sections 13-1-28 through 13-1-199 NMSA 1978), which applies to many state purchases.

The rules of the house and the senate govern the specific conduct of house and senate members. Each house adopts its own rules. Copies of the rules are included in the legislative handbook and are posted on the legislature's website (www.nmlegis.gov). Advisory opinions are also posted on the website.

This guide divides the parameters of legislative conduct into two categories: what you must do (required conduct) and what you must not do (prohibited conduct). What you must do is generally related to campaign reporting and financial disclosure. What you must not do generally relates to the jobs you may not hold, the contracts into which you may not enter and the ways in which you must separate your legislative life from your business and your personal life.

You may contact any of the following agencies for further assistance.

REQUIRED CONDUCT

In a non-election year or in a year in which a legislator is not a candidate, a legislator shall file a report of campaign expenditures and contributions, or a statement of no activity, on the second Monday in April and October. In an election year in which a legislator is a candidate, a legislator shall file no later than the second Monday in April, the second Monday in May, the second Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the Thursday before a primary or general election, 30 days after a primary election and January 7 after a general election. In addition, any contribution of more than $1,000 received in the week before a primary or general election must generally be reported within 24 hours (Subsections A and B of Section 1-19-29 NMSA 1978).

Employment

Members shall attempt to ensure that their private employment does not impair their impartiality (Senate Rule 26-1(B)(2), House Rule 26-1(B)(2)).

Ethics Training

Members shall attend a minimum of two hours of ethics continuing education and training biennially (Subsection E of Section 10-16-11 NMSA 1978, Senate Rule 26-2, House Rule 26-2).

Members shall sign a code of ethics (Senate Rule 26-2, House Rule 26-2).

Financial Disclosure

Each legislative candidate shall file a financial disclosure statement upon becoming a candidate. Members shall, during the month of January, file financial disclosure statements. The statements shall set out all sources of gross income greater than $5,000, a general description of New Mexico real estate owned, New Mexico business interests of $10,000 or more, memberships on for-profit boards, New Mexico professional licenses held, the name of each state agency to which was sold $5,000 or more in goods or services in the previous year and each state agency before which they represented or assisted clients in the course of employment (Subsections A, B and D of Section 10-16A-3 NMSA 1978).

Lobbyist Expenditures

Lobbyists and lobbyists' employers shall report every expenditure, even if unrelated to lobbying, and political contributions made on behalf of members (Subsection A of Section 2-11-6 NMSA 1978). Although members face no requirement under this section, they should be aware of the requirement on lobbyists and lobbyists' employers.

Public Service

Members shall conduct themselves in a manner that justifies the confidence placed in them by the people and maintain the integrity of, and discharge ethically the high responsibilities of, public service (Subsection B of Section 10-16-3 NMSA 1978, Senate Rule 26-1(A), House Rule 26-1(A)).

Public Trust

Members shall treat their government positions as public trusts and use the powers and resources of their offices only to advance the public interest (Subsection A of Section 10-16-3 NMSA 1978).

Voting - House

Representatives shall vote on each question unless excused by a majority vote (House Rule 7-5).

Voting - Senate

Senators shall vote on each question unless they have a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the question (Senate Rule 7-5).

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

Appearance Before a State Agency

Members shall not appear for, assist or represent anyone before a state agency, unless without compensation or for the benefit of a constituent, except attorneys or other professionals engaged in their professions, and in those cases, members shall refrain from references to their legislative capacities and from communications on legislative stationery. A member shall not make direct or indirect threats related to legislative actions in any instance in which the member appears for, represents or assists another person in a matter before a state agency (Subsections B through D of Section 10-16-9 NMSA 1978, Senate Rule 26-1(C)(1), House Rule 26-1(C)(1), interpreted in Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 19-02).

Business Cards

Members may distribute legislative business cards in virtually any situation because business cards serve only to introduce the legislator, but members should not distribute legislative business cards when they are campaigning (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 97-1).

Business with the State or a Municipality

Members shall not be directly or indirectly interested in any contract with the state or a municipality authorized by any law passed during the legislators' terms and for one year thereafter (Article 4, Section 28 of the Constitution of New Mexico).

Members and their families shall not enter into any contract with a state agency unless the contract is awarded in accordance with the Procurement Code, except they shall not be eligible for sole source or small purchase contracts (Subsection A of Section 10-16-9 NMSA 1978, Senate Rule 26-1(D)(1), House Rule 26-1(D)(1)).

Members shall not represent another person in a sale to a state agency unless the transaction occurs pursuant to the Procurement Code (Senate Rule 26-1(C)(2), House Rule 26-1(C)(2)).

Campaigns - Funds and Contributions

Candidates shall not use campaign funds except for expenditures for their own campaigns; donations to another candidate covered by the Campaign Reporting Act, which includes only state, county and judicial candidates (but see next paragraph), a political committee or a political party; donations to the state General Fund; donations to certain charitable, educational, religious or governmental organizations; or refunds to contributors, except that members may use campaign funds for expenditures that are reasonably related to performing the duties of the office, except personal and legislative session living expenses.

The Attorney General's Office has concluded that the restriction limiting a candidate to making donations only to other candidates covered by the Campaign Reporting Act may be vulnerable to legal challenge and that it is permissible to donate to federal candidates (Subsection A of Section 1-19-29.1 NMSA 1978, Attorney General Advisory Letters to Legislative Council Service, July 23, 2009 and June 24, 2010).

The Attorney General's Office, noting that "campaign expenditures necessarily arise from or relate to a campaign" and that "the purpose of a campaign is to convince voters to elect the candidate", suggested that the Secretary of State's Office reconsider its approval of expenditures by a political committee for advertisements urging the public to call their elected representatives on a matter pending before the legislature, suggesting that "the committee is using campaign contributions to lobby the legislature on an issue that is important to the governor and her administration" and that "the expenditures appear to be more related to the current agenda of the governor's office than to a reelection campaign" (Attorney General Letter to the Secretary of State dated March 29, 2011).

The Attorney General's Office has advised candidates to be cautious when distributing campaign items that have value, e.g., telephone calling cards or food, to ensure that the expenditures are not construed as illegal bribes to voters. "There should be no understanding that voters should vote in a certain manner or for a certain candidate in exchange for the gifts." (Attorney General Letter dated May 19, 2008)

The Secretary of State's Office concluded that it is a violation of the Campaign Reporting Act to spend campaign funds to treat a back injury aggravated by door-to-door campaigning (Secretary of State Letter dated October 25, 2012).

The Secretary of State's Office concluded that it is not a violation of the Campaign Reporting Act to spend campaign funds for meals during meetings with constituents during a legislative session, for professional football tickets to be auctioned at a fundraiser, for golf tournament expenses associated with a fundraiser and for campaign office furniture (Secretary of State Letter dated August 31, 2012).

The Secretary of State's Office concluded that it is not a violation of the Campaign Reporting Act to spend campaign funds to repair and maintain vehicles that are used for campaigning and legislative business (Secretary of State Letters dated September 12, 2008 and August 31, 2012).

For the 2026 election cycle, a legislative candidate shall not solicit or accept from a person, including a political committee, campaign contributions totaling more than $6,200 in a primary election cycle or $6,200 in a general election cycle, as adjusted for inflation on January 1 following each general election (Subsections A and F of Section 1-19-34.7 NMSA 1978).

Members and candidates shall not solicit campaign contributions between January 1 and the adjournment of a regular session, nor from the time a proclamation has been issued calling a special session and the adjournment of that session (Subsection A of Section 1-19-34.1 NMSA 1978).

Lobbyists and lobbyists' employers shall not make campaign contributions to legislators or legislative candidates between January 1 and the adjournment of a regular session, nor from the time a proclamation is issued calling for a special session and the adjournment of that session (Subsection B of Section 2-11-8.1 NMSA 1978).

Members shall not solicit or receive contributions for any purpose on the floor or in the lobby of the senate or the house (Senate Rule 1-5, House Rule 1-5).

Campaigns - Lobbyists

Lobbyists shall not serve as campaign chairs, treasurers or fundraising chairs for candidates (Subsection A of Section 2-11-8.1 NMSA 1978).

Civil Office

Members shall not, during the term for which they were elected, be appointed to any civil office in the state, nor shall they within one year thereafter be appointed to any civil office created, or the emoluments of which were increased, during such term (Article 4, Section 28 of the Constitution of New Mexico).

Members shall not use confidential information acquired by virtue of their offices for private gain (Section 10-16-6 NMSA 1978, Senate Rule 26-1(D)(3), House Rule 26-1(D)(3)).

Employment

Members shall not accept employment if the members know that it is being afforded them with the intent to influence their conduct (Senate Rule 26-1(B)(5), House Rule 26-1(B)(5)).

Kickbacks, Bribes, Money and Gifts

Members shall not solicit or receive a kickback, bribe or rebate in exchange for referring business to a person who may be paid with public money (Section 30-41-1 NMSA 1978).

Members shall not vote or use their influence for or against any pending matter in consideration of money or any other thing of value, or solicit money or any other thing of value, for their votes or influence (Article 4, Section 39 of the Constitution of New Mexico).

Legislators shall not request or accept anything of value that is conditioned upon promised performance of an official act (Subsection D of Section 10-16-3 NMSA 1978, Section 30-24-2 NMSA 1978).

Members shall not accept anything of value that improperly influences an official act (Senate Rule 26-1(B)(1), House Rule 26-1(B)(1)).

Members shall not receive compensation as a state officer or employee or compensation unauthorized by law for rendering services, advice or assistance as legislators (Section 2-1-3 NMSA 1978, Senate Rule 26-1(B)(3), House Rule 26-1(B)(3)).

Members shall neither request nor receive an honorarium of money, or any other thing of value in excess of $100, for a speech or service that relates to the performance of public duties (Section 10-16-4.1 NMSA 1978).

Members, their spouses and their dependent children may not accept a gift worth more than $250 from lobbyists, lobbyists' clients, persons doing business or seeking to do business with the legislature or persons who will be financially affected by the member's official duties in a way that is greater than the effect on the public generally or a substantial class of persons to which the donor belongs (Subsection A of Section 10-16B-3 NMSA 1978).

A lobbyist, lobbyist's client or government contractor shall not give gifts worth more than $1,000 in a year to a member (Subsection B of Section 10-16B-3 NMSA 1978).

The Attorney General's Office concluded that, for the purposes of the Gift Act, the value of a ticket to a charitable or fundraising event given to a legislator is whatever the legislator would have had to pay to attend the event, not just the portion of the cost that is not attributable to the event's fundraising purpose (Attorney General Letter dated October 1, 2008).

Members shall not accept gifts, other than lawfully collected campaign contributions, from persons affected by legislation where it is known that the purpose of the donation is either to influence the member or to reward the member's actions (Senate Rule 26-1(B)(4), House Rule 26-1(B)(4)).

Railroad Travel

Members shall not use a pass for or receive transportation over any railroad upon terms not open to the public (Article 4, Section 37 of the Constitution of New Mexico).

Resources of Public Office

Members shall not grant to, or obtain a special privilege or exemption for, themselves or others if the privilege or exemption is not readily available to members of the general community or class to which the beneficiary belongs (Senate Rule 26-1(D)(2), House Rule 26-1(D)(2)).

Members shall not use the powers and resources of their offices to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests (Subsection A of Section 10-16-3 NMSA 1978).

Members shall not use their offices for private gain (Senate Rule 26-1(A), House Rule 26-1(A)).

Members should not include campaign messages or graphics in the signature block or as part of an email sent from the nmlegis.gov domain (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 08-02).

Members are cautioned about including links to websites that may contain a mix of legislative and political content in the signature block of emails sent from the nmlegis.gov domain (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 08-02).

Members are cautioned about sponsoring capital outlay requests that benefit a family member and advised that the more direct the benefit to the legislator's family member, the less appropriate it is for the member to sponsor the request (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 08-01).

Members should not use the state seal except for "matters that relate to the conduct of official business of the state" (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 96-1).

Members shall not allow the use of their offices in the State Capitol for the filming of political advertisements or other campaign activities (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion No. 19-01).

Stationery

Members should use official legislative stationery, which is stationery that contains the state seal, only for matters that relate to the conduct of legislative business (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory Opinion Nos. 96-1 and 97-1).

Members should refrain from using official legislative stationery to write letters to state agencies on behalf of constituents who are immediate family members, except when the immediate family member is a part of a larger class of similarly situated constituents (Interim Legislative Ethics Committee, Advisory

The Secretary of State's Office concluded that it is not a violation of the Governmental Conduct Act for a legislator to use legislative letterhead to invite community leaders of an area not yet represented by the legislator that will be in the district as a result of redistricting and may be represented by the legislator depending on the outcome of the election (Secretary of State Letter dated May 25, 2012).

PROCEDURES

In addition to civil procedures, which may be initiated by the State Ethics Commission, or civil and criminal procedures, which may be initiated by the secretary of state, the attorney general or a district attorney, there are several other ways in which action against a member or candidate may be initiated.

Complaints

Any legislator or member of the public may file a written, sworn complaint with the New Mexico Legislative Council alleging that a legislator has acted unethically (Subsection D of Section 2-15-9 NMSA 1978). The complaint will be referred to the Interim Legislative Ethics Committee.

Any person may file a written complaint with the State Ethics Commission alleging that provisions of the Financial Disclosure Act, Campaign Reporting Act or Lobbyist Regulation Act have been violated (Subsection A of Section 10-16A-6 NMSA 1978, Subsection B of Section 1-19-34.4 NMSA 1978,

A public official, public employee, candidate, person subject to the Campaign Reporting Act, government contractor, lobbyist or lobbyist's employee may request an advisory opinion on matters relating to ethics from the State Ethics Commission (Section 10-16G-8 NMSA 1978).

Any senator may file a complaint with the Senate Ethics Committee alleging unethical conduct by a senator (Senate Rule 9-13-3).

Any member of the public and any representative may file a complaint with the House Rules and Order of Business Committee alleging unethical conduct by a representative (House Rule 9-13-2).

Any person may report an incident of harassment by a legislator to the director of the Legislative Council Service or to the chief clerk of the appropriate legislative body (Anti-Harassment Policy, Sections 2-15-7 through 2-15-12 NMSA 1978, Senate Rules 9-13-1 through 9-13-6, House Rules 9-13-1 through 9-13-7, Legislative Council Policy No. 15).

A person negotiating or executing a contract on behalf of a state agency shall exercise due diligence to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section.

B. Unless a public officer or employee has disclosed the public officer's or employee's substantial interest through public notice and unless a contract is awarded pursuant to a competitive process, a local government agency shall not enter into a contract with a public officer or employee of that local government agency, with the family of the public officer or employee or with a business in which the public officer or employee or the family of the public officer or employee has a substantial interest.

B. The secretary of state shall notify the political committee of any individual who has failed to submit the acknowledgment statement. Failure to return the acknowledgment statement is a violation of this section for which a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) may be assessed against the political committee. B. The prohibition provided in Subsection A of this section does not apply to materially deceptive media if that media includes a disclaimer that appears in a clear and conspicuous manner in every language used in the media and indicates: "This _____ has been manipulated or generated by artificial intelligence". The blank line in the disclaimer shall be filled in with each of the following terms that describes the media:

All disbursements except for disbursements made from a petty cash fund of one hundred dollars ($100) or less shall be made in a form such that the date, amount and payee of the transaction are automatically recorded or by check made payable to the person or entity receiving the disbursement and not to "cash" or "bearer"; and

For those contributions, due diligence and best efforts shall be made to disclose on a special prescribed form the sponsor, date, place, total amount received, expenses incurred, estimated number of persons in attendance and other identifiable factors that describe the special event. For purposes of this subsection, "special event" includes an event such as a barbecue or similar fundraiser where tickets costing twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or less are sold or an event such as a coffee, tea or similar reception; provided that no candidate shall accept contributions of more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) in cash at a special event from any one contributor.

For purposes of this section, an entity or person is directly regulated by an office when the entity's or person's charges for services offered to the public are set or directly subject to approval by the regulatory office or when a license to do business in the state is determined by the regulatory office.

1-19-34.3. Contributions in one name given for another prohibited; concealing source of contributions used for independent expenditures.

A. It is unlawful for a person to make a contribution in the name of another person, and no person shall knowingly accept a contribution made by one person in the name of another person.

C. Any person who believes that a provision of the Campaign Reporting Act has been violated may file a written complaint with the state ethics commission pursuant to the terms of the State Ethics Commission Act. If the commission has jurisdiction for the complaint, the state ethics commission shall refer the complaint to the secretary of state. Upon referral, the secretary of state shall attempt to achieve voluntary compliance with the Campaign Reporting Act. Within thirty-five days after receiving the complaint from the state ethics commission, the secretary of state shall return the complaint to the state ethics commission and certify to the state ethics commission whether voluntary compliance was achieved. If the secretary of state certifies voluntarily compliance, the state ethics commission shall dismiss the complaint or that part of the complaint alleging a violation of the Campaign Reporting Act. B. For purposes of a civil action, it shall be presumed that a candidate who seeks election to a regulatory office, as described in Section 1-19-34.2 NMSA 1978, has advised his campaign committee and all persons authorized by the candidate to solicit campaign contributions on his behalf that it is unlawful to solicit contributions from an entity or its officers or employees or a person that is directly regulated by the office the candidate seeks.

1-19-34.6. Civil penalties.

A. If the secretary of state exhausts efforts in seeking voluntary compliance and reasonably believes that a person committed, or is about to commit, a violation of the Campaign Reporting Act, the secretary of state shall refer the matter to the state ethics commission for enforcement; provided, however, that if the secretary of state waives the imposition of a fine pursuant to Subsection D of Section 1-19-35 NMSA 1978, the matter shall not be referred.

B. With or without a referral from the secretary of state, the state ethics commission may institute a civil action in district court for any violation of the Campaign Reporting Act or to prevent a violation of that act that involves an unlawful solicitation or the making or acceptance of an unlawful contribution. An action for relief may include a permanent or temporary injunction, a restraining order or any other appropriate order, including a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation not to exceed a total of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), and forfeiture of any contribution received as a result of an unlawful solicitation or unlawful contribution. Each unlawful solicitation and each unlawful contribution made or accepted shall be deemed a separate violation of the Campaign Reporting Act.

C. With or without a referral from the secretary of state, the state ethics commission may institute a civil action in district court if a violation has occurred or to prevent a violation of any provision of the Campaign Reporting Act other than that specified in Subsection B of this section. Relief may include a permanent or temporary injunction, a restraining order or any other appropriate order, including an order for a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation not to exceed a total of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(1) a person, including a political committee, shall not make a contribution to a candidate, including the candidate's campaign committee, or to a political committee in an amount that will cause that person's total contributions to the candidate or political committee to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) during a primary election cycle or five thousand dollars ($5,000) during a general election cycle; provided that a person may make a contribution attributable to the general election cycle during the primary election cycle even though the person has contributed the maximum amount allowed for the primary election cycle:

(a) if that contribution is not used to pay for any expenditure related to the primary election; and

C. Except as provided in Subsection K of this section, a person, including a political committee, shall not make a contribution to a political party or legislative caucus committee in an amount that will cause that person's total contributions to the political party or legislative caucus committee to exceed five times the limit imposed pursuant to Subsection A of this section.

D. All contributions made by a person to a candidate, either directly or indirectly, including contributions that are in any way earmarked or otherwise directed through another person to a candidate, shall be treated as contributions from the person to that candidate.

E. A person, including a political committee, shall not knowingly accept or solicit a contribution, directly or indirectly, including a contribution earmarked or otherwise directed or coordinated through another person, including a political committee, that violates the contribution limits provided for in this section.

F. On January 1 after each general election, the contribution amounts provided in Subsection A of this section shall be increased by the percentage of the preceding two calendar years' increase of the consumer price index for all urban consumers, United States city average for all items, published by the United States department of labor. The amount of the increase shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of one hundred dollars ($100). The secretary of state shall publish by October 1 before each general election the adjusted contribution limits that shall take effect the January 1 following general election.

G. All contributions in excess of the limits imposed by the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the public election fund upon a finding by the secretary of state that the contribution limits have been exceeded.

H. The limitation on contributions to a candidate provided for in Subsection A of this section shall not apply to a candidate's own contribution from the candidate's personal funds to the candidate's own campaign.

I. The limitations on contributions to political committees provided for in Subsection A of this section shall not apply to a political committee that makes only independent expenditures or to a contribution to a political committee that is deposited in a segregated bank account that may only be used to make independent expenditures.

J. The limitations on contributions to candidates or campaign committees provided for in Subsection A of this section shall not apply to the value of in-kind contributions from a political party or legislative caucus committee to a candidate nominated by that party in a general election cycle.

K. The limitations on contributions to political parties or legislative caucus committees provided for in Subsection C of this section shall not apply to contributions from a campaign committee authorized for the purpose of electing a candidate from that party in a primary or general election cycle. For purposes of this subsection, "campaign committee" includes a candidate committee regulated by the federal election commission.

L. The members of a political party in a chamber of the legislature shall not maintain more than one legislative caucus committee in each chamber.

1-19-34.8. State ethics commission; jurisdiction.

A. The state ethics commission shall have jurisdiction to investigate and adjudicate a complaint alleging a civil violation of a provision of the Campaign Reporting Act in accordance with the provisions of that act.

B. The secretary of state shall forward complaints it receives alleging violations of the Campaign Reporting Act to the state ethics commission in accordance with the provisions of the Campaign Reporting Act and a formalized agreement.

1-19-35. Reports and statements; late filing penalty; failure to file.

A. Except for the report required to be filed and delivered the Thursday prior to the election and any supplemental report, as required in Paragraph (5) of Subsection B of Section 1-19-29 NMSA 1978, if a statement of no activity or a report of expenditures and contributions is not filed or is filed after any deadline imposed by the Campaign Reporting Act, the responsible reporting individual or political committee shall be liable for and shall pay to the secretary of state fifty dollars ($50.00) per day for each regular working day after the time required by the Campaign Reporting Act for the filing of statements of no activity or reports of expenditures and contributions until the complete statement or report is filed, up to a maximum fine as provided in Subsection H of this section.

Campaign Reporting Act

D. If the secretary of state determines that a reporting individual or political committee has failed to file or has filed a report past the deadline, the secretary of state shall by written notice set forth the violation and the fine that may be imposed and inform the reporting individual that the individual has ten working days from the date of the letter to come into voluntary compliance and to provide a written explanation, under penalty of perjury, stating any reason why the violation occurred. If a timely explanation is filed and the secretary of state determines that good cause exists to waive or reduce the imposition of the fine, the secretary of state may by a written notice of final action partially or fully waive the imposition of a fine for any late report or statement of no activity. A written notice of final action shall be sent by certified mail. The secretary of state may file a petition with the court to remit outstanding fines for good cause or refer unpaid fines for enforcement under Subsection A of Section 1-19-34.6 NMSA 1978.

E. All sums collected for the penalty shall be deposited in the state general fund. A report or statement of no activity shall be deemed timely filed only if it is received by the secretary of state by the date and time prescribed by law.

F. Any candidate who fails or refuses to file a report of expenditures and contributions or statement of no activity or to pay a penalty imposed by the secretary of state as required by the Campaign Reporting Act shall not, in addition to any other penalties provided by law:

(1) have the candidate's name printed upon the ballot if the violation occurs before and through the final date for the withdrawal of candidates; or
