AN ACT

RELATING TO FINANCE; AMENDING THE NEW MEXICO FINANCE AUTHORITY ACT TO RESTRICT THE POWER OF THE AUTHORITY TO MAKE GRANTS FROM THE PUBLIC PROJECT REVOLVING FUND; DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

- BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO: Section 1. Section 6-21-2 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 61, Section 2, as amended) is amended to read:
- "6-21-2. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS--DECLARATION OF PURPOSE. --
  - The legislature finds that:
- (1) there are necessary state and local capital improvement and infrastructure needs that cannot be met with existing capital financing methods and funding sources;
- (2) there is no coordinating entity or process for accomplishing long-term state and local capital planning, needs assessment or inventory of needs; setting priorities; and making more effective use of existing capital financing methods and funding sources;
- (3) the uncertain nature of revenues available from the proceeds of severance tax bonds and other state and local revenues have frustrated state and local government efforts to finance needed state and local capital HB 434

projects; and

- (4) in order to meet public capital and infrastructure needs, a central state mechanism to coordinate the planning and financing of public projects is necessary.
- B. It is the purpose of the New Mexico Finance Authority Act to create a governmental instrumentality to coordinate the planning and financing of state and local public projects, to provide for long-term planning and assessment of state and local capital needs and to improve cooperation among the executive and legislative branches of state government and local governments in financing public projects.
- C. It is the further purpose of the New Mexico Finance Authority Act to provide financing for public projects in a manner that will not impair the capacity of the public project revolving fund to provide future financing to qualified entities for public projects.

  Funding shall not be provided from the public project revolving fund unless revenues in an amount sufficient to avoid a negative impact on the financing capacity of the public project revolving fund are contemporaneously pledged or dedicated for deposit to the public project revolving fund. Pursuant to Section 6-21-6.1 NMSA 1978, the authority may provide funding from the public project revolving fund for the purposes of the Wastewater Facility Construction

Loan Act, the Rural Infrastructure Act, the Solid Waste Act or the Drinking Water State Revolving Loan Fund Act."

Section 2. Section 6-21-5 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 61, Section 5) is amended to read:

"6-21-5. POWERS OF THE AUTHORITY.--The authority is granted all powers necessary and appropriate to carry out and effectuate its public and corporate purposes, including the following powers:

- A. to sue or be sued;
- B. to adopt and alter an official seal;

  - Section 3. Section 6-21-6 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, HB 434 Page 5

Chapter 61, Section 6, as amended) is amended to read:

"6-21-6. PUBLIC PROJECT REVOLVING FUND--PURPOSE-ADMINISTRATION.--

- A. The "public project revolving fund" is created within the authority. The fund shall be administered by the authority as a separate account, but may consist of such subaccounts as the authority deems necessary to carry out the purposes of the fund. The authority is authorized to establish procedures and adopt rules as required to administer the fund in accordance with the New Mexico Finance Authority Act.
- B. Except as otherwise provided in the New Mexico Finance Authority Act, money from payments of principal of and interest on loans and payments of principal of and interest on securities held by the authority for public projects authorized specifically by law shall be deposited in the public project revolving fund. The fund shall also consist of any other money appropriated, distributed or otherwise allocated to the fund for the purpose of financing public projects authorized specifically by law.
- C. Money appropriated to pay administrative costs, money available for administrative costs from other sources and money from payments of interest on loans or securities held by the authority, including payments of interest on loans and securities held by the authority for public projects authorized specifically by law, that represents payments for administrative costs shall not be deposited in the public project revolving fund and shall be deposited in a separate account of the authority and may be used by the authority to meet administrative costs of the authority.

- D. Except as otherwise provided in the New Mexico Finance Authority Act, money in the public project revolving fund is appropriated to the authority to make loans or grants and to purchase or sell securities to assist qualified entities in financing public projects in accordance with the New Mexico Finance Authority Act and pursuant to specific authorization by law for each project.
- E. Money in the public project revolving fund not needed for immediate disbursement, including money held in reserve, may be deposited with the state treasurer for short-term investment pursuant to Section 6-10-10.1 NMSA 1978 or may be invested in direct and general obligations of or obligations fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the United States, obligations issued by agencies of the United States, obligations of this state or any political subdivision of the state, interest-bearing time deposits, commercial paper issued by corporations organized and operating in the United States and rated "prime" quality by a national rating service, other investments permitted by Section 6-10-10 NMSA 1978 or as otherwise provided by the trust indenture or bond resolution, if money is pledged for or secures payment of bonds issued by the authority.

- F. The authority shall establish fiscal controls and accounting procedures that are sufficient to assure proper accounting for public project revolving fund payments, disbursements and balances.
- G. Money on deposit in the public project revolving fund may be used to make interim loans for a term not exceeding one year to qualified entities for the purpose of providing interim financing for a project approved or funded by the legislature.
- H. Money on deposit in the public project revolving fund may be used to acquire securities or to make loans to qualified entities in connection with the equipment program. As used in this subsection, "equipment program" means the program of the authority designed to finance:
  - (1) the acquisition of equipment for:
    - (a) fire protection;
    - (b) law enforcement and protection;
    - (c) computer and data processing;
    - (d) street and road construction and maintenance;

(e) emergency medical services;

- (f) solid waste collection, transfer and disposal;
  - (g) radio and telecommunications; and
  - (h) utility system purposes; and
- improvement of fire stations. The amount of securities acquired from or the loan made to a qualified entity at any one time pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The authority shall issue bonds within one year of the date the securities are acquired or within one year of the date on which the loans are made and use the bond proceeds to reimburse the public project revolving fund for the amounts temporarily used to acquire securities or to make loans. The temporarily funded projects under the equipment program are not required to obtain specific authorization by law required of projects permanently funded from the public project revolving fund, as provided in this section and Section 6-21-8 NMSA 1978.
- I. Money on deposit in the public project revolving fund may be designated as a reserve for bonds issued by the authority, including bonds payable from sources other than the public project revolving fund, and the authority may covenant in a bond resolution or trust indenture to maintain and replenish the reserve from money deposited in the public project revolving fund after issuance of bonds by the authority."

Section 4. Section 6-21-8 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 61, Section 8) is amended to read:

"6-21-8. PUBLIC PROJECT FINANCE PROGRAM--LOANS-PURCHASE OR SALE OF SECURITIES.--To implement a program to assist qualified entities in financing public projects, the authority, subject to specific authorization by law for projects financed with money in the public projects
revolving fund, may:

- A. make loans to qualified entities that establish one or more dedicated sources of revenue to repay the loan from the authority;
- B. make, enter into and enforce all contracts necessary, convenient or desirable for the purposes of the authority or pertaining to:
  - (1) a loan to a qualified entity;
- (2) a grant to a qualified entity from money available to the authority except money in the public project revolving fund;
- (3) a purchase or sale of securities individually or on a pooled basis; or
- (4) the performance of its duties and execution of its powers under the New Mexico Finance Authority Act;
  - C. purchase or hold securities at prices and in HB 434 Page 10 a manner the authority considers advisable, giving due consideration to the financial capability of the qualified entity, and sell securities acquired or held by it at prices without relation to cost and in a manner the authority considers advisable;

- D. prescribe the form of application or procedure required of a qualified entity for a loan or purchase of its securities, fix the terms and conditions of the loan or purchase and enter into agreements with qualified entities with respect to loans or purchases;
- E. charge for its costs and services in review or consideration of a proposed loan to a qualified entity or purchase by the authority of securities, whether or not the loan is made or the securities purchased;
- F. fix and establish terms and provisions with respect to:
- (1) a purchase of securities by the authority, including date and maturities of the securities;
- (2) redemption or payment before maturity;
- (3) any other matters that in connection with the purchase are necessary, desirable or advisable in the judgment of the authority;
- G. to the extent permitted under its contracts with the holders of bonds of the authority, consent to modification of the rate of interest, time and payment of installment of principal or interest, security or any other term of a bond, contract or agreement of any kind to which the authority is a party;

- H. in connection with the purchase of any securities, consider the ability of the qualified entity to secure financing from other sources and the costs of that financing and the particular public project or purpose to be financed or refinanced with the proceeds of the securities to be purchased by the authority;
- I. acquire and hold title to or leasehold interest in real and personal property and to sell, convey or lease that property for the purpose of satisfying a default or enforcing the provisions of a loan agreement; and
- J. in the event of default by a qualified entity, enforce its rights by suit or mandamus or may use all other available remedies under state law."
- Section 5. Section 6-21-11 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 61, Section 11) is amended to read:
  - "6-21-11. BONDS OF THE AUTHORITY--USE--SECURITY.--
- A. The authority may issue and sell bonds in principal amounts it considers necessary to provide sufficient money for any purpose of the New Mexico Finance Authority Act, including:
  - (1) purchase of securities;

- (2) making loans through the purchase of securities;
- (3) making grants for public projects from money available to the authority except money in the public project revolving fund;
  - (4) the construction of public projects;
- (5) the payment, funding or refunding of the principal of or interest or redemption premiums on bonds issued by the authority, whether the bonds or interest to be paid, funded or refunded have or have not become due;
- (6) the establishment or increase of reserves or sinking funds to secure or to pay principal, premium, if any, or interest on bonds; and
- (7) all other costs or expenses of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and powers.
- B. Except as otherwise provided in the New Mexico Finance Authority Act, all bonds or other obligations issued by the authority shall be obligations of the authority payable solely from the revenues, income, fees, charges or funds of the authority that may, pursuant to the provisions of the New Mexico Finance Authority Act, be pledged to the payment of such obligations, and the bonds or other obligations shall not create an obligation, debt or liability of the state. No breach of any pledge, obligation HB 434 or agreement of the authority shall impose a pecuniary liability or a charge upon the general credit or taxing power of the state or any political subdivision of the state.

- C. As security for the payment of the principal, interest or premium, if any, on bonds issued by the authority, the authority is authorized to pledge, transfer and assign:
- (1) any obligation of a qualified entity that is payable to the authority;
- (2) the security for the qualified entity's obligations;
- (3) money in the public project revolving fund or a subaccount of that fund subject to the provisions of Subsection C of Section 6-21-6 NMSA 1978;
- (4) any grant, subsidy or contribution from the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities; or
- (5) any income, revenues, funds or other money of the authority from any other source authorized for such pledge, transfer or assignment other than from the public project revolving fund under the New Mexico Finance Authority Act."

Section 6. EMERGENCY.--It is necessary for the public peace, health and safety that this act take effect immediately.
