SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Memorial 34 acknowledges that Jack Flynn moved to New Mexico at the age of six and covered his first legislative session in 1959 as a stringer for the Las Vegas Optic. He owned the Capitol Government Reports and wrote columns for various publications. Mr. Flynn was politically astute and very well versed in New Mexico politics. He was the longtime pastor of St. Joseph's Orthodox Mission in Santa Fe.

The New Mexico Senate extends its condolences on the passing of Reverend Jack Flynn to his family and many friends. The memorial is to be transmitted to his family.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

None.

DUPLICATION

Senate Memorial 34 triplicates the intent of Senate Memorials 18 and 22.
