pro tempore, by and with the consent of the senate;
provided in the event a member of the committees' committee is or has been excused by the senate from attending sessions for any period in excess of ten days, a temporary appointment to the committee may be made by the same appointing authority who appointed the absentee member. The chairman of the committees' committee shall be the president pro tempore. The vice chairman shall be selected by the members of the committees' committee. "
