SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Current law provides that the motor vehicle division shall issue distinctive motorcycle registration plates indicating that the recipient is a veteran of the armed forces of the United States, or retired from the national guard, or military reserves.

A fee of $7.00 is paid for these special registration plates. This fee is in addition to the regular motorcycle registration fee.

HB 564 provides a one-time waiver of this $7.00 fee for armed forces veterans.

Current law also provides for distinctive registration plates for motor vehicles for veterans of the armed forces. A fee of $15.00 is paid for these special registration plates. This fee is in addition to the regular motor vehicle registration fee.

HB 564 provides a one-time waiver of this $15.00 fee for armed veterans.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

HB 564 will likely result in a slight reduction in fees collected by the motor vehicle division.
