2 are funded largely by the state general fund; and

3 WHEREAS, a medicaid waiver could leverage federal dollars
4 by making many such adults eligible for medicaid services and 5 enable the state to draw federal matching funds for these state 6 expenditures; and

7 WHEREAS, the state of New Mexico has already demonstrated
8 success and cost-effectiveness in serving children and adults
9 with other disabilities in home- and community-based settings
10 through the developmental disabilities medicaid waiver, the 11 disabled and elderly medicaid waiver, the medically fragile
12 medicaid waiver and the acquired immune deficiency syndrome
13 medicaid waiver;

14 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE 15 STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the human services department be 16 requested to lead a task force to study and make 17 recommendations for the development of a medicaid waiver
18 program to serve persons with serious mental illness in New 19 Mexico; and

20 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force include
21 representation from the department of health, the children,
22 youth and families department, agencies and professionals
23 providing services to children or adults with serious mental 24 illness, a statewide alliance for the mentally ill, an 25 organization of parents with behaviorally different children,

1 an organization for protection and advocacy of persons with 2 disabilities, adult consumers of mental health services and 3 family members of adults, children or youth with serious mental 4 illness; and

5 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force consider 6 options for consumer and family self-directed services and that 7 the task force consider the option of a separate mental health 8 waiver as well as the option of including appropriate mental 9 health services within a broader waiver program; and

10 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force, through the 11 human services department, report its findings and 12 recommendations to the legislative finance committee and to the 13 interim legislative health and human services committee at 14 their respective October 2003 meetings; and

15 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be 16 transmitted to the secretaries of health, children, youth and 17 families and human services and to the chairs of the 18 legislative finance committee and the legislative health and 19 human services committee.
