SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Memorial 103 honors, congratulates and thanks Eduardo Holguin for his great contributions to education in New Mexico.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

House Memorial 103 states that Eduardo Holguin served the children of the Las Cruces Public Schools as a fifth grade teacher for almost three decades. Eduardo Holguin served as Vice President of the National Education Association of New Mexico and is completing his second and last three-year term as President of the National Education Association of New Mexico.

According to HM 103, Eduardo Holguin is a native New Mexican and Graduate of Las Cruces high school and New Mexico State University, with a Master's Degree in counseling and guidance. Eduardo Holguin has served the public school employees of New Mexico as a representative on the National Education Association Board of Directors, a member of the Educational Testing Service Teacher Program Council, a member of the Unit Accreditation Board for the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, and as a New Mexico Commissioner on the Education Commission of the States.

Eduardo Holguin has been a tireless advocate for children, public education and public education employees before the New Mexico Legislature and in other venues. He has been responsible for
