1 of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado's expedition into the 2 southwest; and

3 WHEREAS, on October 1, 1943, the university of New Mexico
4 granted an undivided half-interest of the two hundred eighteen
5 and thirteen-hundredths acres through a ninety-nine-year lease
6 to the museum of New Mexico that administered the Coronado 7 state monument; and

8 WHEREAS, on February 24, 1971, the museum of New Mexico,
9 the university of New Mexico and the state parks commission
10 entered into an agreement to permit the establishment of a
11 state park on the southeastern part of the Coronado state 12 monument property adjacent to the Rio Grande; and

13 WHEREAS, on April 8, 1982, the Pueblo of Santa Ana sued
14 the university of New Mexico over the state park development,
15 which had extended onto a portion of its El Ranchito grant 16 property; and

17 WHEREAS, on November 12, 1985, the university of New 18 Mexico and the Pueblo of Santa Ana settled the trespass
19 dispute by agreeing to an exchange of lands in which the 20 pueblo exchanged a twenty-six-and-fifty-seven-hundredths-acre 21 portion of its El Ranchito grant for one hundred nineteen and 22 eighty-six hundredths acres of land belonging to the 23 university of New Mexico and the Coronado state monument on 24 the western edge of the Coronado state monument; and

25 WHEREAS, the twenty-six and fifty-seven hundredths acres

1 received in the exchange were not added to the boundary of the 2 Coronado state monument, and the university of New Mexico did
3 not grant to the museum of New Mexico an undivided
4 half-interest on the twenty-six and fifty-seven hundredths
5 acres despite the museum's collaboration in giving up its 6 undivided half-interest in the one hundred nineteen and 7 eighty-six hundredths acres exchanged with the Pueblo of Santa 8 Ana; and

9 WHEREAS, the university of New Mexico has expressed 10 interest in divesting itself of this twenty-six-and-fifty-11 seven-hundredths-acre parcel of land through a sale; and

12 WHEREAS, Coronado state monument and its principal
13 archaeological resource, the Kuaua Pueblo, should be declared 14 a state monument in its own right and not continue to exist as 15 a state monument under the existing lease agreement with the 16 university of New Mexico;

17 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE 18 STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the university of New Mexico be 19 requested to refrain from divesting itself of the twenty-six-
20 and-fifty-seven-hundredths-acre portion of El Ranchito grant
21 property for any commercial uses and that the governor,
22 through the authority vested in him, be requested to designate 23 the twenty-six-and-fifty-seven-hundredths-acre portion of El 24 Ranchito grant property and the existing parcel of ninety-
25 seven and eight-tenths acres as the Coronado state monument
