HOUSE MEMORIAL 47

48TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2008

INTRODUCED BY

Nick L. Salazar

A MEMORIAL

DECLARING FEBRUARY 1, 2008 "ADULT BASIC EDUCATION AND LITERACY DAY" AT THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WHEREAS, high levels of adult literacy and a prosperous future go hand in hand; and

WHEREAS, more than forty percent of New Mexico's adults have literacy issues that severely affect their lives and those of their families, their ability to work productively and their full participation as citizens and residents of the state; and

WHEREAS, New Mexico's community colleges, universities and volunteer and community-based organizations provided more than one million three hundred thousand instructional hours of basic skills and literacy services to more than thirty thousand adults during the 2006-2007 program year, with the result that one thousand eight hundred forty adult education students
